

Empty Bowls

Help those who are hungry.
Participate in the Empty Bowls project.

Will you MAKE a bowl for hunger?

February 25th and 28th Make a bowl for only a $5 studio fee at the Manhattan Art Center Clay Studio (6-9pm) located in the little building just east of the Manhattan Art Center at 1520 Poyntz Ave.
Really, no experience necessary!

Will you BUY a bowl for hunger?

March 28th- April 19th Select a locally handmade bowl for a $10 donation at Bluestem Bistro (Aggieville), and Edesia (Poyntz).

On April 19th (5-8 pm) bring your Empty Bowl and fill it with free soup at Texas Star Café (Aggieville), and Edesia (406 Poyntz)
OPTIONAL: Soup serving 11am-2pm at 4 Olives Wine Bar (West Manhattan)

Also April 19th Just for fun, take the KSU Art Studio Walk open 5-7 pm at West Stadium. (Some additional soup bowls available at the Studio Walk). Art Studios open to the public. Meet the art students and see their work.

▶ 100% of the proceeds to benefit local hunger fighting organizations ◀
For complete information, including information on how to make & donate a bowl, call 532-6444 or www.ksu.edu/womenscenter

The KSU Women's Center and KSU Campaign For Nonviolence will organize this event with support from other organizations, individuals, and businesses to include:
KSU Art Department, KSU Potter's Guild, The Manhattan Art Center, Manhattan High School Ceramic Students, GSOVA - Graduate Students of Visual Arts, Texas Star Café, Bluestem Bistro, Edesia, and 4 Olives Wine Bar.