Hi KC area friends & family, I want to give you a heads up to an artist on tour from Alaska who will be doing a show in Kansas City (at Mark Shrout's business) on the June First Friday (see above). Marian Call is a great singer/songwriter with great lyric writing skills and an incredible voice, if you haven't been out and about in awhile it would be a great excuse. You can stream some of her music from her website (see above) if you want to see if you'd like her, but I'm sure you will. We've got a great music scene in Alaska but most folks never get a chance to hear it. I hope you can get out for this.

She's also playing in Manhattan at the Arts Center the night before.
