

College of Education

2019 Fall Update with the President and Provost

K-STATE
2025

KANSAS STATE
UNIVERSITY

College of Education

- Record year of philanthropic support to the College of Education
 - $4,277,338
- Record graduate enrollments
 - Up 200 students

Curriculum and Instruction

- Progress/accomplishments
 - Master of Arts in Teaching
 - Bachelor of Science Online
 - Doctor of Education
 - Bachelor of Science in Educational Studies
- Key Metrics
 - Kansas Transition to Teaching--$600,000 to date
 - Troops to Teachers--$380,000
 - Teacher Quality Partnership--$1,600,000
- Priorities
 - Recognition as the preeminent online provider of teacher licensure programs
 - Continued robust growth in external funding and faculty scholarship

Special Education, Counseling and Student Affairs

- Progress/accomplishments
 - Master's degree in Special Education will be offered online
 - CACREP approval to teach courses in Olathe for PhD in Counselor Education & Supervision and Master's in School Counseling
 - Leadership in Academic Advising doctoral program accepting applications with the first cohort in Summer 2020
- Key Metrics
 - Since 2003, 697 graduate students completed the Graduate Certificate in Academic Advising
 - Since 2008, 673 graduate students completed the MS in Academic Advising
- Priorities
 - Transition MS in School Counseling to a 60-hour program to meet CACREP requirements/consider Ed. Specialist
 - Marketing programs and fostering collaborative relationships with organizations (e.g., Kansas State University Division of Student Life)

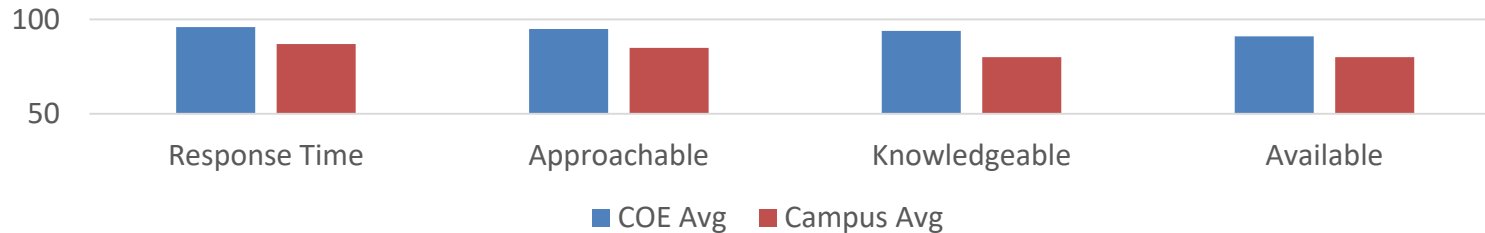

Educational Leadership

- Progress/accomplishments
 - The Leadership Academy model, now in its 21st year, has awarded 360+ masters degrees at 11 sites.
 - The Community College Leadership Ed.D. program is fully operational, with a transitional cohort of 55.
- Key Metrics
 - Adult Learning and Leadership admitted 30 new doctoral students in 2019 – up from 6 admissions in 2018 (of note: most are distance students).
 - Academies are preparing 112 leaders in Dodge City/Garden City, Geary County, Manhattan/Wamego, Shawnee Mission, Topeka, and Osage Nation (OK) - a 30% increase in total headcount over fall 2018.
- Priorities
 - Creating new partnerships with different sectors (e.g., career & technical colleges) that will expand opportunities for masters and doctoral students in adult learning and leadership.
 - Continuing to grow online and certificate programs with corporate partners (adult learning & leadership).
 - Planning and implementing a three-pronged delivery model for the M.S. in Educational Leadership.

Progress/accomplishments

- Progress/accomplishments
 - Stable enrollment of new students (freshman & transfer).
 - Enhanced campus visit experience including facility upgrade and personalization.
- Key Metrics – Undergraduate Advising Section of the K-State Survey

COE Advisors rated highest on campus

- Priorities
 - Continue developing partnerships with high school and community college pathway programs and educationally focused organizations.
 - Fully utilize CRM to enhance personalized recruitment efforts of the COE.

Progress/accomplishments

- OEIE
 - Educational and program evaluation services nation wide –63 active projects (since January 2019), with a total funding amount of nearly $200 million.
 - SNAP Ed - PEARS initiative with Ag Research and Extension and KSU Research Foundation- currently serving 29 SNAP-Ed programs and 5 state-wide extension programs
- NACADA
 - 15,000 members approximately
 - International growth and partnerships
 - Center for Research @ K-State
- CIMA
 - External funding of $50 million
 - Expanding partnerships - school districts, international
 - Dr. Herrera recognized as the International Educator of the Year at K-State

Top priorities moving forward

- Increase enrollment at the UG and GR levels
- Continue to increase external funding
- Embrace, sustain, and grow prestigious university/school district partnerships
- Ongoing accreditation activities

College of Education

- Record year of philanthropic support to the College of Education
 - $4,277,338
- Record graduate enrollments
 - Up 200 students