- Kansas State University is the only state-supported university since 1986 to rank among the Top 10 of all U.S. schools for the combined total number of scholars in Rhodes, Marshall, Truman, Goldwater and Udall competitions.
- Among all 500 state universities, K-State ranks first nationally in Truman and Goldwater and fourth in Udall scholarship competition since each foundation began awarding scholarships. K-State ties for second in Rhodes and ties for fourth in Marshall competition since 1986.
- Among all of the 2,000 four-year colleges and universities in America -- 500 public; 1,500 private -- K-State is fourth nationally in the number of Goldwater scholarships awarded, ranks seventh in Truman and Udall competitions.
- The Truman Foundation recognized K-State in 1996 as a Truman Scholarship Honor Institution, the first time the Foundation singled out universities for their achievements in Truman competition. At that time, only 17 schools were chosen from the 454 colleges and universities which have produced Truman scholars.
