

FACULTY-LED BUDGET GUIDE

This guide is designed to help you understand the costs associated with a KSU Faculty-Led Program

1 Find a Program

Faculty-Led programs can change each year based on faculty-interest. You can find a list of current faculty-led programs here: <https://ksu.studioabroad.com/?go=FacultyLed>.

PROGRAM COST

For an itemized breakdown of all anticipated expenses, please view the KSU in Italy Budget Sheet at the top of this page. For summer programs like KSU in Italy, Education Abroad and Kansas State University post all billable costs directly to students' KSIS accounts in mid-May, around the start of the summer term.

Review the Program Budget

Faculty-Led program budgets are split into three categories of expenses: Faculty-Led Program Fee, Estimated K-State Tuition and Fees and Estimated Other Personal Expenses. Once a program fee has been decided, this amount cannot be increased. However, tuition and fees and out of pocket costs are subject to change in accordance with university fee increases and variations in individual enrollment, travel, housing, and spending.

PROGRAM BUDGET SHEET for KSU IN ITALY - Summer

Course term: Determines the term that the program fee and tuition will be billed to KSIS

- Fall (early August)
- Spring (early January)
- Summer (mid-May)

Study Tour Term: When students will actually go abroad. Sometimes this is different than the course term.

Program Fee: The program fee usually includes lodging, transportation in country, health insurance, excursions and some group meals. Some faculty-led program fees also include airfare.

Tuition and Fees: All students will pay K-State in-state tuition rates regardless of resident status for faculty-led programs.

Other Personal Expenses: Some out of pocket expenses will need to be paid ahead of time (such as passport or airfare) while most are paid once you are in country (such as meals or personal expenses)
