1 Download the provider budget template

You can download the provider budget template here: <https://www.k-state.edu/abroad/current-students/funding/learn.html>

2 Navigate to the Program Brochure

You can find a list of provider programs here: <https://ksu.studioabroad.com/?go=provider>

The image shows a screenshot of the ISA website. At the top, there is a purple header with the text "Affiliate Programs (click to expand)". Below this, a list of programs is shown, including "SAI Programs (6 items)", "IFSA - Butler (1 item)", "International Studies Abroad (20 items)", "International Studies Abroad (9 items)", "IACI College (1 item)", "USAC (28 items)", and "Academic Programs International (25 items)". The "International Studies Abroad (20 items)" and "International Studies Abroad (9 items)" items are circled in purple. Below the list, there is a section for "ISA Sevilla, Spain: International Studies, Business & Spanish Language - Academic Year/Semester (Outgoing Program)". To the right of this section are icons for print, save, and share. Below this, there is a form with three fields: "Locations: Seville, Spain", "Program Terms: Academic Year, Fall, Spring", and "Homepage: Click to visit". The "Homepage: Click to visit" field is circled in purple. To the right of the form is a purple button labeled "Apply Now". Below the form, there are three columns of program information, each with a teal header "Europe : Spain". The first column lists "SEVILLE", "Hispanic Studies & Electives", and "Universidad de Sevilla". The second column lists "SEVILLE", "Hispanic Studies, Business & Spanish Language", and "Universidad Pablo de Olavide". The third column lists "SEVILLE", "International Studies, Business & Spanish Language", and "ISA Study Center with Universidad Internacional Menéndez Pelayo - Sevilla". The third column is circled in purple.
