Study Abroad (Semester)

Prague, Czech Republic

Exchange Program: Prague University of Economics and Business

Scholarship Opportunities: Students accepted to this program receive a guaranteed $1,200 scholarship.

About: Study at the same university attended by past Czech presidents and prime ministers. There are many course options in economics, as well as in the areas of finance, international trade, accounting, taxation, tourism, marketing, and supply chain management. This program is located in the picturesque and affordable Czech capital of Prague, a city with excellent travel connections to other exciting cities in central Europe.

Seoul, South Korea

TEAN Program: Korea University

About: Study in Seoul at one of Korea's leading private universities. Here students will have the opportunity to live in a vibrant capital city that blends high-tech modernity with ancient culture. While studying a range of courses in English, students will also discover more about life in Korea by pairing up with a Korean student over the course of the semester for an even more immersive and local experience. Examples of popular courses offered include Principles of Economics, International Business & Trade, Organizational Behavior, as well as various classes related to Marketing, Financial and Operations Management.

Mendoza, Argentina

API Program: Universidad de Congreso

About: Economics students that are also studying Spanish can spend a semester improving their language skills while also taking classes like Argentine Economy, Regional Economics, International Economic Law, and more. This program includes excursions to the Andes, world-renowned wineries, and is a great choice for nature enthusiasts.

Friedrichshafen, Germany

Exchange Program: Zeppelin University

About: Located a stone's throw from Switzerland, Zeppelin University is a private university in one of Europe's most picturesque regions. As a small international university, Zeppelin is a fantastic place to interact with students from all over the world. Numerous courses are offered in English, and German language proficiency is not required. Econometrics, Corporate Finance, Macroeconomics, and Supply Chain Management are examples of past course offerings taught in English.

Study Abroad (Summer)

Orvieto, Italy

Kansas State University in Italy

About: Located in the Italian hill town of Orvieto, and centrally located between Rome and Florence, with both cities just a short train ride away. This is KSU's premiere summer study abroad program in Italy and is open to all students and majors. Students will study with KSU faculty members at the Centro Studi Citta di Orvieto and earn KSU credit.

Prague, Czech Republic

Direct Enroll: University of Economics, Central and Eastern European Studies Program \(CESP\)

About: The CESP program offers students the opportunity to take courses in English in one of Europe's most picturesque cities. CESP is a separate track of study at the University of Economics, and is also one of the most affordable summer and semester study abroad programs.

Intern Abroad (Summer or Semester)

Australia, Spain, UK, Ireland, Spain, New Zealand, South Korea, Japan

ISA Program: Business & Political Science Internships

About: Complete an internship over the summer, or combine it with courses during a semester program. Examples of past placements include asset management firms, finance departments, investment banks, nonprofit organizations, start-ups, and more!

Service Learning Abroad (Summer)

South Africa, Dominican Republic, Gambia, Guatemala, and Kenya

International Service Teams

About: International Teams is a service-learning program of interdisciplinary teams of Kansas State University students. Teams travel and live in communities around the world during the summer break. International Teams work with community partners to engage in local community work abroad on a variety of meaningful projects.
