Study Abroad (Semester)

Puebla, Mexico

Exchange Program: Universidad Popular Autonoma del Estado de Puebla

About: Universidad Popular Autonoma del Estado de Puebla (UPAEP) is a young and dynamic university in the heart of downtown Puebla. UPAEP has a commitment to improving the international awareness of its graduates and is focusing its efforts on sending more of its students abroad while welcoming students from other universities.

Buenos Aires, Argentina

API Program: Universidad de Belgrano

About: Study in Argentina's capital and take advantage of the broad course catalog that Universidad de Belgrano offers through API. Get a closer look at local life in Argentina by living with a host family! Students can choose to take one intensive language course at the beginning of the term, a semester long intensive course, or enroll in classes with local students for an immersive academic experience.

Madrid, Spain

USAC Program: Universidad Rey Juan Carlos

About: Study in Madrid to improve your Spanish language skills through language classes, culture classes, and the opportunity to live with a host family. Offering classes for beginners or advanced Spanish speakers, this USAC program is a great choice for many majors looking to learn or improve their Spanish skills.

Valparaíso, Chile

ISA Program: Pontificia Universidad Católica de Valparaíso

About: Located on the outer edge of Valparaíso, blocks away from the local port, the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Valparaíso (PUCV) is a traditional Catholic university that offers everything a student needs for complete Spanish immersion. KSU students at the PUCV will take courses through the International Program's Office, which offers courses in Spanish language and culture. Advanced Spanish speakers are eligible to enroll in courses with local Chileans in a variety of subjects.

Study Abroad (Summer)

San José, Costa Rica

API Program: Universidad Veritas

About: The Spanish Language, Liberal Arts, & Environmental Studies program allows students to combine interests in a variety of fields. Students also participate in visits to the Arenal Volcano, an international excursion to Panama, and more.

Havana, Cuba

API Program: Universidad de la Habana

About: Art and Caribbean culture flourishes in the dynamic city of Havana. In addition to experiencing the colonial charms of old Havana, students have numerous opportunities to explore the island and interact with locals. There are opportunities to study in Cuba during the semester, summer, and winter intersession.

Cusco, Peru

ISA Program: Universidad de Salamanca Cursos Internacionales en Cusco

About: Spending a summer in South America is a perfect way to continue working on Spanish language skills in between regular classes. Not only do students have the chance to spend a summer in the picturesque city of Cusco, but there is also the opportunity to visit great historical and archeological sites like Machu Picchu. Living with host families or in apartments allows students to truly experience the Peruvian lifestyle.

Service Learning Abroad (Summer)

Dominican Republic, Guatemala, and others

International Service Teams

About: International Teams is a service-learning program of interdisciplinary teams of Kansas State University students. Teams travel and live in communities around the world during the summer break. International Teams work with community partners to engage in local community work abroad on a variety of meaningful projects. Previous placements have focused on health, education, environmental and sustainability concerns, and youth development.

Chile, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, and Peru

ISA Service-Learning programs

About: Participate in service projects from 4 to 8 weeks in length. Placement fields include child and family development, health care, education, animal care, human rights, community agriculture, and environment and conservation. Credit and non-credit options available.
