Accepting ABSTRACTS for Poster Session!
REGISTRATION is OPEN!
– June 12-14, 2019 –
12th Annual Arthropod Genomics Symposium at KSU
Manhattan, KS

PLEASE SHARE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT WITH COLLEAGUES AND STUDENTS!

Hi All:

Planning is well underway for the 2019 AGS that is returning to KSU in Manhattan, KS. Visit our website at www.k-state.edu/agc/ags for more details about the symposium.

CURATION CLINIC: Gene Annotation using Apollo

+ Pre-symposium workshop in the afternoon on Wednesday, June 12 before the symposium opens that evening at the K-State Alumni Center in Manhattan, KS.

+ This pre-symposium workshop is designed to introduce researchers who are working with annotated arthropod genomes to the Apollo curation tool. This online genome browser allows users to check if their gene annotations are supported by the data and correct them if required. No prior knowledge of Apollo is needed. The practical parts of the workshop will require a laptop computer that can connect to the WiFi.

+ If interested in participating in this workshop, please complete the google form.

+ More details will be provided as they become available on the symposium website, <https://www.k-state.edu/agc/ags/schedule/>

KEY DEADLINES

Sunday, May 19 – Early Registration Deadline

Monday, May 20 - Abstracts Due for Poster Sessions

OVERVIEW

The symposium focuses on new insights gleaned from analyzing arthropod genomes and is designed for scientists interested in genomic studies of Arthropods, both model organisms and those of agricultural or health relevance. The program will include platform presentations, welcome reception and arthropod genomics-related poster sessions. A few poster abstract submissions will be selected for platform presentations. Postdoctoral, graduate, and undergraduate students are also encouraged to attend. Sessions begin Wednesday evening, June 12, with a Welcome Reception featuring our Keynote Speaker and conclude Friday evening, June 14, with a walk and dinner on Konza Prairie.
