AMETH 160: Introduction to American Ethnic Studies
Sect. ZA: Global Campus; Sect. ZB: Global Campus; Sect. ZC: Global Campus – Various

The Introduction to American Ethnic Studies course will provide you with a context for exploring many of the dynamics of race and ethnicity in the U.S. and select countries. In addition, a socio-historical framework will be used to help you understand racial and ethnic relations between the major ethnoracial groups in the US, i.e. Native Americans, African Americans, Asian Americans, European Americans, and Hispanic Americans. Sect. ZA and ZB meet from May 14th to June 1st; Sect. ZC meets from July 30th to Aug. 17th.

AMETH 351: African American Perspectives: Black Liberation Theology
Sect. ZA: Global Campus – Dr. DeWitt

This course is designed to introduce Liberation Theology from a historical, religious and theological perspective. We will examine Liberation theology in Black communities, various U.S. communities of color, and in different global contexts. Each student will answer the question: “Given my personal life story, what does Liberation Theology mean to me?”

AMETH 560: Bible Wars – Christianity & Power
