The American Ethnic Studies Department

invites applications for

The Wayne C. Rohrer Scholarship Application

FOR: Declared majors in American Ethnic Studies at Kansas State University

DEADLINE: Wednesday, September 30, 2020 by 5:00pm

SUBMIT TO: Alisa Wolfe - awolfe@ksu.edu

AWARD AMOUNT: $600.00

ANTICIPATED AWARD DATE: October 20, 2020

Established in memory of Dr. Wayne C. Rohrer, professor of Sociology at Kansas State University (from 1959 to 1987), this scholarship fund commemorates Dr. Rohrer’s lifelong commitment to fairness and equality in racial and ethnic relations in the United States. This scholarship has been earmarked for students who are currently declared majors in American Ethnic Studies at Kansas State University. The Wayne C. Rohrer Scholarship is awarded annually, and applications must be received by the American Ethnic Studies Department by Wednesday, September 30 at 5:00pm.

Application Process

The recipient(s) of this scholarship will be an undergraduate student(s) majoring in American Ethnic Studies in the College of Arts & Sciences at Kansas State University who demonstrate significant promise and who’s academic and career goals emphasize improving the understanding of racial and ethnic relations in the United States of America. In all other respects, these funds will be awarded without restriction to race, gender, national origin, religion, age, sexual orientation, or disability.

Please fill out the information on the lower portion of this sheet and include a typed essay no more than 500 words addressing the following:

“How do your academic and career goals emphasize improving the understanding of racial and ethnic relations in the United States of America?”

Name:__________________________________________ Date:____________________

Email:__________________________________________ Phone:____________________

ATTACH THIS SHEET AND YOUR ESSAY BY SEPTEMBER 30, 2020.