The American Ethnic Studies Department invites applications for

The Wayne C. Rohrer Scholarship Application

DEADLINE: Monday, September 30, 2019 by 5:00pm

SUBMIT TO: 102 Leasure Hall, ATTN: Alisa Wolfe

AWARD AMOUNT: $600.00

ANTICIPATED AWARD DATE: October 20, 2019

Established in memory of Dr. Wayne C. Rohrer, professor of Sociology at Kansas State University (from 1959 to 1987), this scholarship fund commemorates Dr. Rohrer's lifelong commitment to fairness and equality in racial and ethnic relations in the United States. This scholarship has been earmarked for students who are currently declared majors in American Ethnic Studies at Kansas State University. The Wayne C. Rohrer Scholarship is awarded annually and applications must be received in the American Ethnic Studies business office (currently 103 Leasure Hall) by Monday, September 30 at 5:00pm. Anticipated award date is October 20, 2019

Application Process

The recipient(s) of this scholarship will be an undergraduate student(s) majoring in American Ethnic Studies in the College of Arts & Sciences at Kansas State University who demonstrate significant promise and whose academic and career goals emphasize improving the understanding of racial and ethnic relations in the United States of America. In all other respects, these funds will be awarded without restriction to race, gender, national origin, religion, age, sexual orientation, or disability.

Please fill out the information on the lower portion of this sheet. Along with this sheet, please also include a typed essay that is no more than 500 words addressing the following:

“How do your academic and career goals emphasize improving the understanding of racial and ethnic relations in the United States of America?”

Name:_________________________________________________ Date:___________________

Email:_________________________________________________ Phone:_____________________

STAPLE THIS SHEET TO THE FRONT OF YOUR ESSAY AND SUBMIT TO 102 LEASURE HALL BY SEPTEMBER 30, 2019.