Global Issues & Perspectives and Human Diversity in the U.S. Survey

Administered April of Spring 2018 to all students enrolled in courses with this designated K-State 8 area.

Overall Results
Total Respondents: 1030
Total Human Diversity: 368
Total Global Issues: 662

In your class, how much, if at all, did you learn about the following outcomes in the area of Human Diversity?

- Becoming aware of how group affiliation affects people's perceptions and experiences.
- Recognizing the characteristics of human groupings in the U.S. -- (such as gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, ...)
- Critically examining issues of identity, gender, race, ethnicity, and nationality.
- Communicating my views on interrelationships among cultures in the U.S.
- Understanding prejudice and discrimination within U.S. social and cultural contexts.
In your course, how much, if at all, did you learn about the following outcomes in the area of Global Issues and Perspectives?

- Examining my own cultural values and perspectives.
- Becoming aware of global culture's values, perspectives, and beliefs.
- Understanding how global issues affect all individuals, political systems, and nations.
- Considering global issues such as sustainability, privilege, multiculturalism, governments, etc.
- Developing knowledge and skills that will help me live and work more effectively within the global community.

- Not Covered
- A Little Bit
- Some
- Quite A Bit
- A Lot