THINK...

Sean had long heard of the story of a family tradition. It seems that his father, his grandfather, and his great grandfather had all been able to walk on water on their 18th birthday. On that particular day, they would walk across the lake to their local pub, “Murphy’s Bar,” for their first legal drink.

So when Sean’s 18th birthday arrived, he and his friend, Mick, took a boat, rowed out to the middle of the lake, and Sean stepped out of the boat. He immediately sank and nearly drowned. He was only saved by Mick, who managed to pull him back into the boat.

Furious and confused, he went to see his grandmother and said, “Gran, ’tis my 18th birthday. So why can’t I walk across the water, like me father, me grandfather, and his father before him?”

THINK...

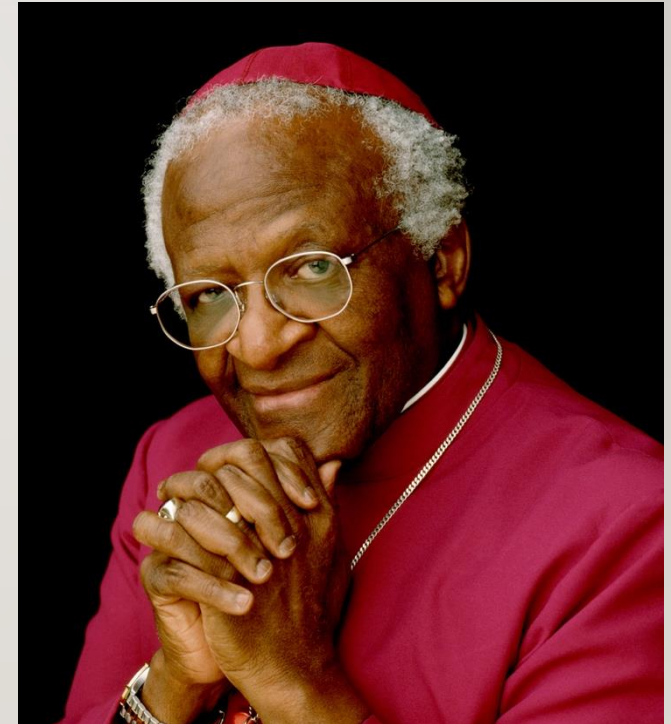

Grandma looked deep into Sean's troubled eyes, looked at him with kind, benevolent eyes and said, "Because they were all born in January, and the lake was frozen over; you were born in August, ye eejit!!"

ACTION REQUIRED...

“When the white missionaries came to Africa, they had the Bible and we had the land. They said, ‘Let us pray.’ We closed our eyes. When we opened them, we had the Bible and they had the land.”

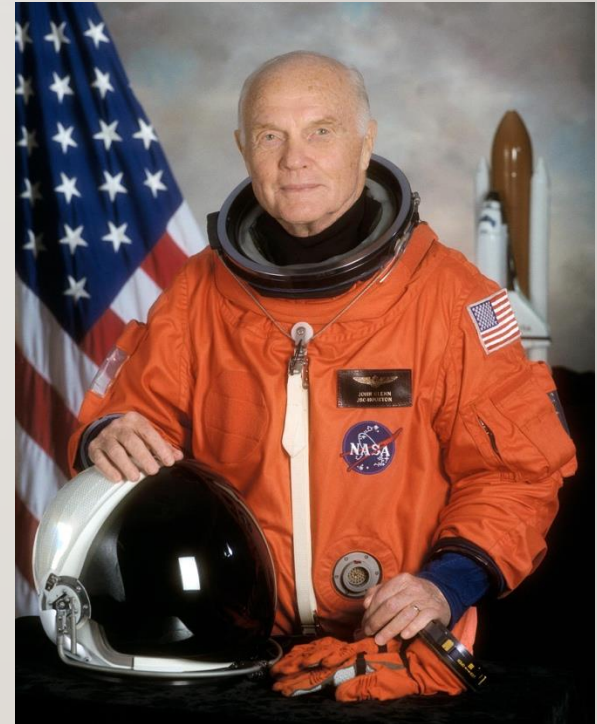

~ Desmond Tutu

MAKES YOU THINK...

“As I hurtled through space, one thought kept crossing my mind – every part of this rocket was supplied by the lowest bidder.”

~ John Glenn

TRUTH...

TRUTH...

“If laziness were an Olympic Sport, most would want to finish 4th so they did not have to walk up the podium steps!”

LAZY OR EFFICIENT?

When you just can't be bothered to put in the effort

TRUTH...

"I was bad at getting girls in high school, even when I tried to use the angle of being in a band. I'd be like, 'Yo, what's up, girl? You wanna come see my band on Friday?'"

"Maybe...what's the name of your band?"

"Marching."

~ Tim Ross, @Tim_Is_Win

TRUTH IS...

Teaching is the greatest act
of optimism and hope.

(We need you now more than ever.)
