Myth: Providing accommodations for people with disabilities is expensive. $$$$$$

Fact: The majority of workers with disabilities do not need accommodations to perform their jobs, and for those who do, the cost is usually minimal.

Typical Accommodations

- Flexible Schedule
- Re-arranging physical space
- Height adjustable desk
- Large computer monitor

Attracting Employees with Disabilities

- Pair a member of the company's disability focused employee resource group with a recruiter for on-campus career fairs.
- Extend an invitation to us to tour your company and establish an ongoing relationship.
- Participate in ADA and disability awareness / sensitivity training.
- Network with other businesses that have experience employing people with disabilities.
- Feature employees with disabilities in marketing materials.
