SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM ONLINE VERSION

UPDATE: Following campus recommendations related to the COVID-19 coronavirus, the Center for Engagement and Community Development (CECD) has cancelled the face-to-face symposium program described below for March 23-24. Instead, an online version of the symposium presentations will be offered by Global Campus between April 15 and June 15.

Faculty Keynote Speaker Presentations
- Nancy Thomas, Institute for Democracy in Higher Education, Tufts University

Student Keynote Speaker Presentations
- Hayley Spellman, Senior, Political Science and Communication Studies
- Ron Orchard, Graduate Student, Veterinary Medicine and Public Health

Workshops

Grassland Interview: Drawing the Prairie Workshop, Katie Kingery-Page and Erin Wiersma, Kansas State University

Social Justice Praxis: A Direct Action Community Organizing/University Internship Partnership, Brandon Irwin, Flint Hills Wellness Coalition, Jess Kerr, Yolanda Broyles-González, Kansas State University

Panels

Promoting a College Going Culture: First Generation Students and Families, Laura Loyacono, Methane Higgins, and Kaitlin Albert, Kansas State University at Olathe

Walking the Walk: A Case Study in Interdisciplinary Engagement, Kathrine Schlageck, Lucia Garavito, Laura Kanost, and Andie Faber, Kansas State University

The Nexus of Student Success and the Public Good, Keristiena Dodge, Sachin Pawaskar, Julie Dierberger, Deborah Smith-Howell, and Sara Woods, University of Nebraska at Omaha

Connecting the Community through Curiosity, Kaleigh Cobb, Allison Saab, Isis Thornton-Saunders, and Samantha Crawford, UFM Community Learning Center
Exemplars of Engaged Pedagogy from Three Disciplines: Engaging Students and Promoting Accountability

- Accountability in Service Learning and Participatory Action Research Projects: Preliminary Findings, Emily Loker, University of Colorado, Boulder
- Mission Accomplished: Using Assignments to Help Students Engage Their Worlds, Don Saucier, Kansas State University
- Master of Public Administration Programs and Civic Engagement, Brianne Heidbreder, Kansas State University

Engaging Student Learners to Address Food Insecurity

- Hungry for Change: Working Together to Combat Food Insecurity, Jasmine Linabary, Delaney Dold, Christina Wankum, and Katherine MacGregor, Emporia State University

Understanding and Navigating Tensions and Challenges in Campus / Community Partnerships

- Bridging the Gap: Navigating Tensions in Community Engagement Partnerships, Jasmine Linabary and Sadie Coffey, Emporia State University
- Lessons Learned When Campus / Community Relationships are Left to Chance, Elaine Johannes and McKenzie Zimmermann, Kansas State University

Dialogue as a Communication Mode to Engage Policy and Public Officials

- Democracy in Danger: Rural Communities Sustaining and Prospering through Discussion, Kyra Lampe and Timothy Shaffer, Kansas State University
- Community Conversations: A Youth – Adult Partnership, Aliah Mestrovich Seay, Jill Martinson, Lorenza Lockett, and John Jobe, Kansas State University

Curricular and Research Strategies to Address Food Insecurity Service Learning and Photovoice

- Student Listening Sessions Key to Nudge Food Pantry Program Development, Mary Watson, Creighton University, Faith Schirer and Christian Thomas, Together Omaha

Campus / Community Engagement in STEM fields

- Veterinary Student ROLE Models Bring STEM to Disadvantaged Kids, Kate KuKanich, Kansas State University
- Growth Mindset Interventions and Girls’ Beliefs on the Nature of Intelligence, Morgan Greene, Kansas State University

Institutional Organizational Structure to Facilitate Campus / Community Engagement

- Overcoming Institutional Barriers to Service Learning, Talia Smith, Anni Zou, Grace Nelson, and Ali Al-Ghaithi, University of Nebraska-Omaha
- Spreading the Word in Siouxland: Disaster Relief and Immigrant Services, Stacey Alex, Jemar Lee, and Kiki Bennett, Morningside College

Incorporating Writing Strategies into Undergraduate Student Community Engagement
• Puppies, Bikes, Pantries, and More: Service Learning in the Classroom, Ania Payne, Kansas State University
• Undergraduate Public Scholarship: Blogs and Infographics Replacing Quizzes and Presentations, Amber Vennen and Caroline Gimarc, Kansas State University
• Young Writers’ Workshop at Kansas State: Fostering Creativity through Outreach, Katherine Karlin and Dustin Vann, Kansas State University

Lessons Learned through International Service Learning and Engagement
• Student International Service Learning: Making a Difference and Changing Lives, Linda Yarrow, Kathleen Hoss-Cruz, Gerit Wagner, and Alexandra Troike, Kansas State University

Student and Faculty Engaging with Community to Build Equitable Housing
• Reflections on Housing in Manhattan and Greater Riley County, Kansas, Susmita Rishi, Kansas State University, and Brandon Irwin, Flint Hills Wellness Coalition

Addressing Student Civic Education through Dialogue and Community Engagement

Transformational Experiences
• The Kitchen Table as Everyday Democratic Talk, Timothy Shaffer and Kyra Lampe, Kansas State University

Building Community Engaged Leaders through High School and University Professional Development Programs
• Community Engagement and Career Development: Two Sides of One Coin, Kaitlin Long, Tori Burkhart, and Tamara Bauer, Kansas State University

Posters
  a. Veterinary Health Center Joins ‘Everybody Counts’ to Serve Community Pets, Kate KuKanich, Kansas State University
  b. Bridging the Gap Between the Classroom and the Workplace, Kaleigh Cobb, Kansas State University
  c. Engaged Service Learning Shapes Students’ Individual Identities, Fostering Community Stewardship, Grace Nelson, Ali Al-Ghaithi, and Haley Jessen, University of Nebraska at Omaha
  d. The Structure and Function of Self-Described Living Labs, Katherine Nelson, Kansas State University
  e. Stories of Community Organizing to Advance Health Equity in Manhattan, Melanie Mccarty, Frank Bailey, Kerry Priest, and Susan Rensing, Kansas State University
  g. Starting a Community-Engaged Research Project, Andrew Wefald, Kansas State University
  h. The Opportunity Map - Visualizing Health Inequalities in Riley County, Brandon Irwin, Flint Hills Wellness Coalition, Laura Wallace, Endeavoer Mapping, Ellyn Mulcahy and Susan Rensing, Kansas State University
  i. Culture Mashup: Community Engagement + emerging technology, Carol Sevin, Kansas State University
  j. Wildcats Vote, Hayley Spellman, Cameron Charity, Kiern Kinnan, Kansas State University PechaKucha – Lightning rounds on the theme of student success and public goods
   a. Destination Marysville: Attracting Visitors and Connecting Residents to Their Community, Tyler Tripp, Kansas State University
   b. Inspiring and Challenging Students to Expand Their Worldview, Hannah Sutherland, Kansas State University
   c. Make Way for Marysville: Reflections on Community Engaged Visioning, Alex Pereyda, Kansas State University