

Kansas State University (K-State) is committed to performing animal facilitated research in a humane and compliant manner. The K-State Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC) is empowered to “review and if warranted, investigate concerns involving animal care and use resulting from public complaints, or reports of noncompliance from laboratory or research facility employees or personnel.” If you have questions or concerns about animal care and use at K-State, please call on one of the individuals listed below, a member of the IACUC (a roster of members is posted on the IACUC website), or submit via the “Report a Concern” link on the K-State IACUC website. If you prefer, you are not required to give your name.

- Cheryl Doerr – University Research Compliance Office (785-532-3224)
- Dr. Denver Marlow – Attending Veterinarian (785-532-5640)
- Dr. Sally Olson – IACUC Chair (785-410-7513)

A significant technical and informational resource on all aspects of the animal care and use program for K-State is located on the University Research Compliance Office (URCO) website.
