

Coursedog view-only access | User guide

Introduction to Curriculum Management for New Users

Log in

1. Go to <https://app.coursedog.com/#/products>
2. Click to sign in.
3. Log in with your K-State e-mail and password.

Navigation

Select Curriculum Management

Curriculum Management page

Menu options appear on the left.

- Courses - Click to view a course.
- Programs - Click to view a program.

- Proposals - Click to find proposals that have been submitted, but not yet fully approved.

Courses and Programs pages

Use the Filter and Search features to find courses or programs.

Curriculum Management

Courses + PROPOSE NEW COURSE | IMPORT CURRICULUM COURSES | HISTORICAL UPLOADS | REPORTS | EXPORT RESULTS | SAVED VIEWS

Browse Revisions By: Effective Start Term (Summer 2026)

Showing 0 - 20 of 7141 | 1 FILTER | Search for Courses | COLUMNS (5 OF 79)

| CODE   | COURSE TITLE            | ACADEMIC ORGANIZATION                           | STATUS | COURSE OFFER NUMBER |
|--------|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|--------|---------------------|
| AAI301 | Career Readiness in AAI | School of Applied and Interdisciplinary Studies | Active | 1                   |
| AAI395 | UNDG Topics in AAI      | School of Applied and Interdisciplinary Studies | Active | 1                   |

- To find a specific course search on Code, which is Subject + Course Number, with no space between. For example: MATH100
- To view additional columns, remove columns, or reorder columns in your results, use the COLUMNS selection menu.
- To view courses and programs approved for a future term, use the Effective Start Term drop-down and select the term of approval or later.

Viewing course and program records

- From the Course or Program page, click a course or program to view it.

| CODE   | COURSE TITLE            | ACADEMIC ORGANIZATION                           |
|--------|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| AAI301 | Career Readiness in AAI | School of Applied and Interdisciplinary Studies |

- The Revision dropdown will show any past updates that were made using a new effective term in Coursedog.

< AAI301 | Career Readiness in AAI

Active Latest Version

Effective Dating: Aug 1, 2025 - Until Next Revision

✓ This course was successfully synced with the SIS on 3/20/2026 at 12:44 AM.

Catalog Data

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Subject Area                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Catalog Number     |
| AAI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 301                                                                                                 |
| Course Title                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Long Course Title  |
| Career Readiness in AAI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Career Readiness for Applied and Technical Professions                                              |
| Course Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                     |
| This course will allow students to synthesize career and academic opportunities related to their technical coursework into viable career pathways. Exploration of career interests and values will be accomplished through selected assessments, applied learning projects, and online resources. Identification of defined academic and |                                                                                                     |

ACTIONS ACTIVITY

-  PROPOSE CHANGES
-  EDIT COURSE
-  VIEW PROPOSALS
-  CATALOG PREVIEW
-  PRINT

Contents

Catalog Data
Credits, Units, and Hours