

Kansas State University Cargill College Transfer Program Scholarship

Cargill College Transfer Program

This scholarship program is targeted towards 7th-12th grade students. The partnership between K-State, DMSA, and Cargill seeks to increase the community college transfer rates, as well as create community engagement in the Dodge City area, where the majority of the population are first-generation racial/ethnic minorities living in at-risk communities.

The goal is to encourage and build a college-going intent in Ford County. The transfer College-for-a-Day institute is a core program component accompanied by a scholarship for financial support to increase retention and graduation for students. Applicants should be enrolled in either the College of Agriculture, College of Business Administration, or College of Engineering.

This scholarship amount is $2,000, dependent on GPA and is renewable once.
