

CARS & COPPS

TRAFFIC STOPS

Who's right?

7 P.M.
TUESDAY,
OCT. 12

K-STATE STUDENT UNION
FORUM HALL
GROUND FLOOR

FREE

K-STATE PARKING GARAGE $1.50/HOUR
K-STATE PARKING LOTS FREE AFTER 5 P.M.

Join us for an absorbing roundtable discussion that will provide you a thought-provoking look at constitutional rights against unlawful search and seizure. The discussion will open your heart and mind to the conflicts between the government's right to investigate crime and the people's rights to be left alone: At home or on the highway; in the bedroom or in the pick-up truck.

Panelists

Lt. Allan Lytton
Kansas Highway Patrol Training Academy, Troop J

Larry Mcrell
Chief public defender, Junction City, Kansas

The Honorable David L. Stutzman
Riley County District Court

Barry Wilkerson
Riley County attorney

Professor Michael Kaye
Washburn University School of Law

Moderator

Art Thompson
Office of the Kansas Judicial Administrator

Dorothy L. Thompson
Civil Rights
Kansas State University Lectures