

Academic Communication Institute

Sponsored by DIKTI

November 4 – December 13, 2018

Arrival and Orientation Information

November 4 (Sunday): You arrive at Manhattan Regional Airport \(MHK\) at 11:20 pm. Representatives of the Office of International Program, Wendy Matthews and Cary Chappell, will wait for you, drive you to Jardine, and help you check-in. Wendy will give you a folder with important information.

November 5 (Monday):

- 8:15 a.m. – Kori, a student worker will meet you in front of your building and escort you to Kramer Dining Center for breakfast.

Bring the following with you:

- The dining center card – for breakfast
- Passport, DS 2019 and the folder from Wendy – for checking in
- Notebook and pens or pencil for class
- Money for shopping
- 8:30 – Breakfast in Kramer Dining Center
- 9:00 – Kori takes you to the International technology Commons (ITC, Wildcat Landing, Suite #204, 1800 Claflin Road) for your first class
- 9:15 – 10:30 –Advanced Integrated Skill – Instructor: Greta Climenhaga
- 10:30 – 10:45 – Break
- 10:45 – 12:00 – Advanced Writing Skills – Instructor: Ranae Peverill
- 12:00 – 12:15 – Welcome and Program Orientation – Ms. Mary Wood, Director of English Language Program, Ms. Ketty Reppert, Associate Director of Academics

- 12:15 – 1:00 pm – Lunch at Kramer Dining Center

- 1:10 pm – Meet in front of Kramer Dining Center with Agnes Chikan and walk to International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) to check in.
- 1:30 – Checking in at the ISSS. You will need your passport and DS 2019 for this.
- Getting K-State IDs at the ID Center, K-State Student Union
- Cashier’s Office to pay fees (only if there are any participants who haven’t paid before arriving)
- Short trip to WalMart with Wendy to purchase necessary supplies (toiletries, soap, shampoo, conditioner, detergent, snacks, converter, warm clothes, etc.).
- 4:15 – Housing Orientation at Jardine Tower
- Dinner at Kramer Dining center
- (If there is no time for shopping in the afternoon, we will arrange transportation to WalMart after dinner.)