Enter the workforce with a leading company in the pork industry. Work full-time and grow your skills as a management trainee to prepare for advanced roles at our company.

What you can expect

- Training that prepares you for a supervisory or technical role of responsibility that allows you to make an impact in our company
- Spend 8 to 16 months learning our business and developing your skills to advance your career in the company
- Receive technical, business management and leadership training
- Receive career guidance and mentorship from our leadership team
- Gain exposure to our connected food system

Management trainee positions

- Farm operations
- Pork processing
- Land and nutrient management
- Industrial maintenance
- Food safety and quality assurance
- Supply chain operations
- Transportation
- Sales
- Business analytics
- Feed milling
Benefits such as

- Tuition investment reimbursement
- Paid time off and paid holidays
- Affordable insurance plans including dental and vision
- 401k with match
- $1,000 referral bonuses up to $10,000 a year
- Discounts on cell phones and area gyms
- Employee meat sale

What sets us apart

- Opportunities to develop and showcase your leadership abilities
- A deep understanding of the pork industry inside and outside your specific area of work
- A network of upper-level management and collaboration with other management trainees
- A unique career pathway based on your interests and skills

Most positions start in Guymon, Okla., and grow into other locations in the five states where we operate

Contact Our Recruiters

EMAIL
careers@seaboardfoods.com
WEBSITE
www.seaboardfoods.com