

STATE OF KANSAS

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Kansas State University, as a land-grant institution, is dedicated to improving the lives, livelihoods and communities of Kansans through education, research, engagement and leadership; and

WHEREAS, by embracing collaboration and fully enhancing engagement and the K-State Research and Extension system, Kansas State University fosters trust and builds relationships, connecting the K-State community with the state, nation and world; and

WHEREAS, with a presence in all 105 Kansas counties - both rural and urban - Kansas State University ensures its research and teaching accomplishments are accessible and relevant to every household; and

WHEREAS, Kansas State University's interdisciplinary focus leverages institutional strengths to address today's most pressing challenges and drive prosperity for Kansans statewide; and

WHEREAS, by elevating engagement and extension, Kansas State University is positioned to tackle critical issues such as conserving water and natural resources, advancing safe food systems and promoting economic, health and community well-being across Kansas.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Laura Kelly, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF KANSAS, do hereby proclaim October 21-25, 2024, as

K State Extension and Engagement Week

in the state of Kansas and I urge all citizens to join in this observation.

DONE: At the Capitol in Topeka under the Great Seal of the State this 21st day of October, A. D. 2024

BY THE GOVERNOR:

Laura Kelly

Seth Schrad
Secretary of State

Assistant Secretary of State

