

Supplemental Information
FS Academic Affairs Committee Review
November 21, 2017 Meeting

Human Ecology – (approved by GC 11-7-17)

School of Family Studies and Human Services

~~Financial and Housing Counseling Graduate Certificate~~

~~Contact: Ann Coulson~~

~~E-mail: leoulso1@k-state.edu~~

~~This 18 hour certificate is offered through the Family Studies and Human Services graduate program.~~

~~The Financial and Housing Counseling (FHC) Graduate Certificate is designed for students who want graduate coursework that meets the educational requirement to sit for the Accredited Financial Counselor (AFC) and Certified Housing Counselor (CHC) certification examinations. To qualify for the certificate, students must be admitted to the certificate option and take the necessary coursework.~~

~~Core Courses~~

~~PFP 624 Fundamentals of Family Financial Planning Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 709 Public Policy and Family Economic Well-Being Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 756 Financial Counseling Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 758 Housing/Real Estate Credits: 3~~

~~Elective Courses~~

~~Choose two of the following:~~

~~PFP 675 Field Study in Family Economics Credits: 1-3~~

~~PFP 760 Retirement Planning for Families Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 762 Investing for the Family's Future I Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 764 Estate Planning for Families Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 765 Military Personal Finance Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 766 Insurance Planning for Families Credits: 3~~

~~PFP 772 Personal Income Taxation Credits: 3~~

~~FSHS 850 Family Science Credits: 3~~

Rationale: Due to exiting GPIDEA, we are no longer able to offer the courses required. Other institutions offered many of these courses and we do not offer them ourselves.

Impact: None

Effective Term: Summer 2018