Re: 2018-2019 Annual Reports

This report represents the activities of the K-State Ombudspersons from mid-August 2018 to late July 2019. Our activities have been combined to provide an aggregate view of our work, to protect confidentiality, and to maintain the anonymity of those with whom we work. All conversations, actions, and outcomes are privileged information. No specific information about any individual(s) or their status is provided.

There were 46 consultees who visited an ombudsperson within the 2018-2019 timeframe. Together, the three of us spent 175 hours providing consultative services. A summary of consultees who sought assistance is provided below. Consultees tended to be self-referrals or found us via a referral from colleagues.

Ombudspersons	#Consultees	Hours
All	46	175

Hours do not reflect time spent researching, consulting with others across campus, and finding options to present to consultees.*

There is little doubt University Ombuds are an essential resource to employees as they seek out information, raise concerns, and work toward mutually satisfactory solutions in the workplace. Despite the fact that consultee numbers have remained relatively comparable over the last few years, the hours expended by the Ombuds has increased exponentially. Once seen as the last resort, an Ombuds consultation is now considered the first step for many individuals looking to address workplace issues, interpersonal conflict, policy questions, and various other concerns.

Ombuds empathetically listen to concerns, clarify and identify pertinent policies and resources, and offer communication strategies to individuals in an effort to resolve issues that might otherwise escalate into adversarial and time-consuming formal processes. This “insider” knowledge allows the Ombuds to make recommendations for systemic change in an effort to promote transparency, clarity, and fairness across the University.

Below are the recommendations for the 2019-2020 reporting year:

1. Additional efforts to implement Ombuds recommendations from the past two years:
 - a. Renewed focus on the University’s Principles of Community, as unprofessional actions and speech continue to contribute to interpersonal conflict.
 - b. Training about microaggressions and bullying – and how to respond to such behavior.
 - c. More training on the performance evaluation process.

Continued delay in fully and holistically addressing the aforementioned recommendations may prolong concerns that can often be addressed at the personal, interpersonal, or unit level.*

2. Enhanced training for Dept./Unit Heads regarding University handbook compliance and interpretation.
3. Review of Tenure and Promotion documents across each department/unit to ensure consistency and understanding at the individual, departmental, and Provost levels.
