Printer repair services

In this budget client and with changes in staffing, we are evaluating the services offered by each of our areas. Kristin, Charles and I wanted to ask your opinion about printer repair services.

Over the last year, Client Services has serviced 49 printers. Some took 2-5 days to repair, others took greater than two months for varying reasons (waiting on parts, waiting on approval, funding, staffing, etc.). We also have met with third party vendors (HP and Dell) about print management solutions. NOTE: These discussions are separate from the university copier contract.

Any thoughts you have on providing print management services for campus would be appreciated.

Thanks in advance. Rebecca Gould
