Section B: The Faculty Senate of Kansas State University

Article I. General Purpose, Jurisdiction, and Duties of the Faculty Senate

To facilitate the exercise of the powers outlined in Section A, those powers are hereby delegated by the general faculty of Kansas State University to a representative body to be called the faculty senate of Kansas State University. This delegation of authority by the general faculty is subject to revision by that faculty.

Section A. General Purpose

The primary aim of including a faculty senate in the organization of Kansas State University is to facilitate faculty participation in the establishment of university policies and in the formulation of procedures for their interpretation. Such policies shape the purposes and character of the institution, and define its future direction.

Policies once established need to be under constant scrutiny if they are to remain useful. Article II. Membership of the Faculty Senate

Section A. Composition, Representation, Voting, and Membership

1. Composition of the Faculty Senate.
   a. There shall be four senators elected from each of the following representative units: (1) cooperative extension, (2) the library, and (3) each of the colleges. In addition to the four senators from each of the units described above, an additional senator shall be elected from each unit for each twenty-five full-time equivalent (FTE) unclassified members above seventy-five FTE or fraction thereof. Determination of the FTE for each unit is based on the total FTE of all unclassified personnel not on term appointments who are funded through the budget of the unit, excluding Extension Agents and Farm Management Economists. In addition, there shall be a General University unit representing all other unclassified personnel not on term appointments with the number of senators elected from that unit determined at a rate of 15% (rounded up to the nearest whole number) of the total number of senators in all other units (excluding the General University unit).

b. The student senate president, vice president, and one other student from the student senate are to be members of the faculty senate with voting powers. To qualify for these positions, the students must have a minimum of 45 semester hours in residence and be currently enrolled for 12 or more semester hours.

2. Representation in the Faculty Senate.

All unclassified personnel at Kansas State University who do not have a term appointment, except Extension Agents and Farm Management Economists, are represented in the Faculty Senate based on the location of their appointment in the University. When appointment tenths of time are distributed unequally among two or more units, the person is represented in the unit providing the greatest tenths of time. When appointment tenths of time are distributed equally among different units, the person is free to choose any one of those units for membership. Regardless of the tenths of time allocated towards administrative functions, deans, associate deans, and assistant deans are members of the general university unit (although they are counted in the determination of the number of senators in their home unit).

3. Eligibility for voting in Faculty Senate elections.

Those unclassified personnel identified in Section A.2 are eligible to vote in faculty senate elections in the unit in which they are represented.

4. Eligibility for membership in the Faculty Senate.

Those unclassified personnel identified in Section A.2 with a total university appointment of five-tenths or more are eligible to be elected to the Faculty Senate with the following exception: No person who is working toward a degree from Kansas State University is eligible for election as a senator unless that person is working for a degree outside his/her own department, provided that degree is not a requirement for promotion or tenure in his/her own department. (Such persons are counted in the determination of FTE for unit representation and are eligible to vote in the appropriate election of senators.) A person who does not wish to be included on their unit's ballot that year must so notify the caucus chair in advance.

5. The proportional representation shall be reviewed and revised, if necessary, by the executive committee of the Faculty Senate every three years beginning in October 2002. October 1 shall be the date for counting the number of faculty and unclassified non-faculty in each unit for the purpose of reapportionment of the Faculty Senate.

Section B. Parliamentarian

The faculty senate shall include a parliamentarian without voting power.

Section C. Term of Office of Senators

1. The term of office shall be three years. Senators are eligible for re-election except that a senator cannot serve more than six years without a year intervening.
2. The term of office with full voting privileges shall begin with the first meeting of the new senate.
3. In the event senators are on leave, incapacitated, or otherwise unable to function for a time greater than one semester, the office shall be declared vacant and shall be filled by the procedure of Article II, Section D.5. The person appointed to fill the vacancy will serve for the remainder of the term, except that the person appointed to the seat vacated by the president shall serve for that year only. Senators unable to function for one semester or less may designate a proxy as outlined in the by-laws.

Section D. Nomination and Election of Candidates

1. The election committee along with voting members of the executive committee shall conduct an election each year with the aid of such offices as are necessary and shall certify the election results. This election committee shall be composed of the chair of the faculty affairs committee, the president, and secretary of the senate. The representative from each unit on the executive committee shall confirm with the Office of Faculty Senate approximately 11 weeks before the first meeting of the new senate a list of those in his/her unit eligible to vote and eligible to serve in senate elections. The election committee shall adjudicate any questions of voter eligibility, the unit in which a person should vote, and the eligibility for election to the senate according to Article II, Section 1.
2. All eligible voters shall have the opportunity to vote by secret ballot for representatives from their respective unit.
3. Nominees for membership in the senate shall be chosen approximately nine weeks before the first meeting of the new senate by a preliminary ballot of those entitled to vote. The executive committee member in charge of unit elections or a member of the election committee shall ascertain the willingness to serve of those nominated from each unit, in order of number of votes each received, and shall certify twice the number to be elected as the official nominees of the unit. In the event of ties, those receiving the same number of votes shall be included on the ballot for election; the voting faculty shall be directed to vote for, at most, the necessary number of Senators.
4. Senators shall be chosen by secret ballot in a final election supervised by the election committee and the executive committee. In the event of a tie in the final election, a coin will be tossed to determine the winner. Elections shall be conducted seven weeks before the first meeting of the new senate.
5. A complete summary of the election shall be kept by the secretary of the senate in official files for at least three years. Election results shall be forwarded to the president of the senate.

As a vacancy occurs in the senate, the executive committee will appoint to the senate for the unexpired term the individual who received the next highest number of votes in the regular election within the unit.

Each caucus shall go back no further than the final ballot to find replacements for vacancies. When the names on the final ballot are exhausted, a special election will be called at the time of the vacancy to fill the vacancy.

6. In the event of reorganization of the colleges, the extension, the library, or the general administration, representation on the senate of these groups will remain unaltered until after the next regularly scheduled election.
