Effort Reports need to be signed by the individual the report covers.

Exceptions include:

- 1) PIs may sign for grad & undergrad students
- 2) PIs may sign for research assistants
- 3) Supervisors may sign for an employee when they are unavailable for signature, such as on sabbatical, when they are no longer employed by the university or other prolonged absence.

In all cases, the individual signing the report must be directly aware of and have first-hand knowledge of all effort being reported for an employee.

I confirm that I have reasonable means of verifying the activities performed by the above mentioned employee and that the distribution of effort represents a reasonable estimate of the actual work performed by the employee during the period covered by this report.
