HUBER SELF SCHOLARSHIP IN GEOGRAPHY

The SELF SCHOLARSHIP is supported by Alumni and Friends of the Department of Geography and Geospatial Sciences and is bestowed in the name of Professor Emeritus Huber Self. Professor Self retired in 1980 after having devoted more than 33 years of his professional life to the advancement of Geography at Kansas State University. He authored textbooks and atlases on the Geography of Kansas and numerous articles in professional journals. Huber Self passed away in 2011 at the age of 97.

ELIGIBILITY: Any current undergraduate geography major enrolled during the 2019 - 2020 academic year.

AWARD AMOUNT: $1000.00
APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 31, 2020
NOTIFICATION DATE: Geography Awards Reception (Late April 2020)

The value of the Huber Self Scholarship is $1000. The first $500 will be awarded in August of the award year and the second $500 in January of the following semester. Receipt of the Huber Self Scholarship does not preclude the award winner from receiving any additional scholarships awarded at Kansas State University.

If you are interested in being considered for this Scholarship, please turn in the following materials by the application deadline to the Department of Geography and Geospatial Sciences main office.

(1) A one-page essay describing the importance of geography for attaining your professional goals
(2) Two letters of recommendation from instructors (letters should be sent to the department head, if sent separately.)

Applicants may also mail their completed packets to:

SELF SCHOLARSHIP
1002 Seaton Hall
Department of Geography and Geospatial Sciences
Kansas State University
