

GOODNOW HALL CONSTITUTION

We, the residents of Goodnow Hall of Kansas State University believe that: individual student growth can be facilitated and complemented by student government, that the initiation of hall policies and programs must begin with responsible student government, and that student government and student authority are concurrent with student responsibility. Through the establishment of effective democratic representation by the residents in the hall, we hope to attain the following objectives: provide for social development and promote the general welfare of hall residents, so as not to infringe upon their relative liberties but to maintain individual independence. With these ideas in mind, we, the residents of Goodnow Hall, do hereby establish this constitution for the administration of our hall's government.

Article I

Organization and Membership

This organization shall be named the Goodnow Hall Governing Board (HGB), and shall include only residents of Goodnow Hall.
