

TAKING CARE DURING COVID-19

RESOURCES FOR COURSEWORK, RESEARCH, AND DEGREE PROGRESS

KEEP LEARNING

Find guidance on continuing coursework and other academic activities remotely. The Keep Learning webpage includes a section of information specifically for graduate students.

<https://www.k-state.edu/keeplearning/>

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT CENTER

Academic coaching is available Monday-Friday, 9am-5pm, to help students navigate online learning, understand course expectations, address academic and time management challenges and more! A number of academic success tools and resources are available on the AAC website.

<https://www.k-state.edu/aac/>

THE LIBRARY AND YOUR RESEARCH WORKSHOPS

Live workshops have concluded for the semester, but recordings are available. Topics include literature review, citation managers, data management, and ETDR template.

<https://www.lib.k-state.edu/library-and-your-research-workshops>

K-STATE LIBRARIES' BOOK COLLECTION ONLINE ACCESS

K-State Libraries has activated the Emergency Temporary Access Service as a member institution of HathiTrust Digital Library. The service allows any books in HathiTrust's digital library that are also in K-State's physical collection to be available online to authenticated K-State students, staff and faculty. Access the digitized version of more than 50% of K-State's physical collection.

<https://www.k-state.edu/today/announcement/?id=64039>

LABSTATS REMOTE ACCESS

LabStats Remote Access is available to current students, faculty and staff providing remote access to some computer labs on campus. The tool gives access to specialty software such as SPSS, SAS, Matlab, Mathematica and Minitab.

<http://blogs.k-state.edu/it-news/category/k-state-today/>