

TAKING CARE DURING COVID-19

FINANCIAL AND FOOD SECURITY RESOURCES

RESOURCES FOR FINANCIAL EMERGENCY

K-State's Office of Student Financial Assistance invites students, faculty, or staff experiencing a financial emergency to submit the online Financial Intervention Referral Form. Other emergency financial resources include the Student Emergency Grant, Emergency Student Loan, and K-State Proud Student Opportunity Award.

<https://www.k-state.edu/sfa/aid/emergency-aid/>

POWERCAT FINANCIAL

Students may request individual peer counseling appointments for information on personal finance topics such as budgeting, saving, how to manage credit, student loan repayment, and others.

<https://www.k-state.edu/powercatfinancial/services/>

FOOD SECURITY SUPPORT

Cat's Cupboard

All K-Staters are welcome to place an online order for nonperishable food items. Orders submitted by Tuesdays at midnight are available for pick up 9am - 4pm on Thursdays.

<https://www.k-state.edu/cats-cupboard/>

Flint Hills Breadbasket

Graduate students employed for at least 20 hours per week are eligible to utilize the Flint Hills Breadbasket. Proof of income and proof of address (within Manhattan city limits) is required. Use of the emergency pantry is available to those who have recently become unemployed.

<https://www.flinthillsbreadbasket.org/>

Common Table

The Common Table Community Meal program serves meals seven nights a week. These meals are to-go and are adhering to proper social distancing protocol.

<https://www.facebook.com/Common-Table-724597210921610/>

Harvesters Community Food Network

Harvesters hosts mobile food drops in the community, providing fresh food.

<https://www.harvesters.org/Get-Help/Service-Locator.aspx>

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

Students working 20 hours a week or more may be eligible for SNAP. Harvesters has a phone agency that can help with application over the phone.

<https://www.harvesters.org/Get-Help/Snap>