Appendix B (Agenda item 6.a.) First Reading - Chapter 3, The Doctoral Degree, Section L, The Final examination

~~When the student is admitted to candidacy, the Dean of the Graduate School appoints an examining committee. This committee consists of the supervisory committee and a member of the graduate faculty not on the supervisory committee. For Ed.D. candidates the outside chair will be a graduate faculty within the College of Education. The additional member serves as chairperson for the final oral examination.~~ The supervisory committee takes on the role of the examining committee for the final examination. The major professor ~~The outside chairperson, as the representative of the Graduate School, is responsible for conducting the final examination in an orderly manner, evaluating it as a test of the candidate's expertise, submitting the final examination ballot, and making other reports as appropriate or required. As a member of the examining committee, the~~ major professor chairperson ~~also has the right and the responsibility to evaluate the candidate's performance and to cast a vote. The outside chair~~ major professor ~~is responsible for returning the signed ballot and evaluation form to the Graduate School immediately after the oral examination.~~

~~At least 3/4 of the supervisory committee, which does not include the outside chair, must sign the ETDR ballot before the ETDR ballot can be processed and the dissertation can be submitted to K-REX and ProQuest.~~

~~The major professor is responsible for submitting the ETDR ballot to the Graduate School. By submitting the signed ETDR ballot, the major professor indicates that~~ they have ~~he/she has reviewed and approved the final PDF file for electronic submission.~~

The responsibilities of the examining committee are:

1. A copy of the dissertation that has been approved by the major professor or co-major professors is presented to each member of the supervisory committee ~~and outside chair~~ at least 10 working days prior to the oral examination. At least three-fourths of the examining committee must agree that it is in acceptable form before the final examination may be scheduled. All members must sign their approval or disapproval. By signing, a faculty member indicates only that the form of the dissertation is acceptable for review and that a final examination may be scheduled. Signing does not imply that the content of the dissertation is satisfactory.
2. If during the 10 working days prior to the scheduled defense, one or more committee members ~~or the outside chair~~ have significant concerns regarding the content or quality of the dissertation, the faculty should consult with the major professor or co-major professors. ~~The~~ s. ~~The major professor should confer with the other members of the supervisory committee and determine whether the orals should be held as scheduled or delayed. The supervisory committee should meet during the scheduled time to provide specific feedback to the candidate regarding the necessary changes. The ballot must be returned to the Graduate School. Once the student has addressed the concerns and made the necessary changes in the dissertation, the orals can be rescheduled. The candidate will provide the supervisory committee and outside chair with a copy of the dissertation and obtain their signatures on an Approval to Schedule Final Examination form. This form must be submitted to the Graduate School 10 working days prior to the scheduled oral examination.~~
3. After the dissertation is deemed in an acceptable form, an oral examination at which the candidate presents and defends the dissertation is scheduled. All members of the examining committee (or substitutes appointed by the Dean of the Graduate School) are expected to be present throughout the examination. At least three-fourths of the examining committee including substitutes appointed by the Dean of the Graduate School must approve the candidate's performance before ~~he or she is~~ they are deemed to have passed. A refusal to vote by the chairperson or any other member of the examining committee shall be recorded as a negative vote. With the permission of at least three-fourths of the committee, a failed oral examination may be retaken but no sooner than three months from the date of the failure.

Normally the oral examination will be open to the public. All or part of the exam may be closed at the request of the major professor with only the committee, candidate, and others approved by the major professor attending the exam. Such a request with a justification for the examination not to be open, such as presentation of data on a pending patent or confidential materials based on existing contract, must be received by the Graduate School before the exam is scheduled and must be approved by the Dean of the Graduate School.

The final oral examination may be taken when the student has completed the program of study and satisfied all other program requirements. All Final examinations must be given on the Manhattan campus and scheduled at least two weeks in advance with the exception of doctoral students completing their degrees via distance or hybrid delivery. Preference is for the doctoral students completing online doctoral programs to complete their final examination on the Manhattan campus. However, arrangements can be made for the doctoral student and the supervisory committee to conduct the defense via video conference. The student must work with the major professor and graduate program director to arrange a physical location for the on-campus faculty members and the public to view the video dissertation presentation. Separate video conference meetings should be scheduled for the open defense and supervisory committee deliberations. The ~~outside chair~~ major professor and on-campus faculty members should participate in the same location. The major professor ~~outside chair~~ will be responsible for obtaining signatures on the ballot from all committee members. Committee members should sign the ballot and return the scanned copy to the ~~outside chair~~ major professor or provide their vote via email. The original ballot with committee members' signatures and the scanned ballots or email message should be delivered to the Graduate School.

When the dissertation has been approved, the oral final examination has been passed, the final examination ballot submitted to the Graduate School, the ETDR ballot has been submitted to the Graduate School, the dissertation submitted to K-REX and ProQuest, and all other requirements have been met, the candidate is recommended by the Dean of the Graduate School to the Faculty Senate for approval to award the degree.

* Special restrictions apply to visiting, part-time, adjunct, or emeritus faculty and to graduate faculty associates. See Chapter 5, Section D.
