Week of January 4-8, 2016  Events and Deadlines

Graduate Program Director and Contact Staff

Department deadline for recommending applications to Graduate School

February 1 is the deadline for those who live outside of the United States, distance learning and are currently enrolled at an institution in the U.S. and who plan to graduate in May or July 2016 and will travel outside of the U.S. prior to August 2016.

Official GRE scores are now being populated into CollegeNET

See an example of how you can view official scores on CollegeNET.

Graduate Student Opportunities

Spring 2016 Graduate Student Leadership Program

Graduate students from all disciplines are invited to apply to the semester-long program, specifically those who want to move beyond technical expertise and develop their leadership skills to make positive change in their work, studies, and student organizations.

Three Minute Thesis competition comes to K-State

Please encourage all to participate in K-State's first Three Minute Thesis (3MT®) competition, February 16-17, 2016. 3MT® is an academic competition that challenges graduate students to present a compelling oration of their thesis/dissertation topic and its significance in just THREE minutes using just ONE PowerPoint slide.

The Center for the Integration of Research, Teaching, and Learning (CIRTL) spring 2016 courses are open for registration
Graduate students interested in a career involving teaching should take advantage of CIRTL’s online courses and resources available to graduate students across the nation.

Graduate Fellowships on International Affairs and Diversity

The Humanity in Action is accepting applications for the 2016 Diplomacy and Diversity Fellowship. Please encourage your students to use their holiday break to work on their applications. The deadline to apply is January 13, 2016.