

K-State Graduate School

Weekly Newsletter

Week of August 28-September 1, 2017 Events and Deadlines

This weekly newsletter is sent out to dept. heads, graduate program directors and contact staff, and graduate faculty.

Graduate Faculty

Volunteer to serve as a judge at annual Research and the State Poster Session

The GSC is calling for faculty volunteers to judge posters at Research and the State on November 9. Volunteers must be available at 12:45pm for a 1-2.5 hour period. Sign up by completing a brief online form. Visit the GSC Research Forums webpage for more information about Research and the State.

Graduate Faculty and Graduate Council Open Forum- Sept. 5

Mark your calendars and plan to attend the Graduate Faculty and Graduate Council Open Forum scheduled for September 5 from 3:30-4:45 p.m. in the K-State Student Union, Big 12 Room. This Forum is used as a platform to communicate to K-State administrators. If you are not able to make the meeting, Zoom will be available here.

Graduate Program Directors and Contact Staff

Deadline dates for departments to send recommended international applications to the Graduate School

We outlined the deadlines for international applications to the Graduate School for Spring. Please remember to view the International Checklist for items needed before making a program recommendation: <http://www.k-state.edu/grad/faculty/CollegeNET.html>.

Curriculog goes campuswide this fall

Beginning fall 2017, all colleges and committees will use Curriculog for course proposals. K-State faculty and staff may log in to Curriculog and view course proposals and agendas using their K-State eID and password.

CollegiNET- PDF Issues (Flash Player)

If you are experiencing issues with viewing your PDF and you receive a message regarding your flash player, here are some fixes if you use the following browsers: Google Chrome or Mozilla/Firefox. If you have not updated your flash player, please view this webpage for more details.

Graduate Students

Call for Abstracts: Research and the State

Abstract submission deadline is September 29.

Graduate students from all disciplines are invited to submit an abstract for the annual Research and the State in November. Participants will give poster presentations of their research or scholarly work and discuss the implications of their work for issues of interest to the Kansas Legislature. Ten presenters will be selected to present their poster at the annual Capitol Graduate Research Summit in February.

NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program Information Session

Wednesday, September 13 from 3:30-5:00 Room 207, Student Union

The National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship Program supports outstanding graduate students in NSF-supported science, technology, engineering and mathematics disciplines who are pursuing research-based Master's and doctor degree. This session will take an in depth look at the requirements for an NSF GFRP submission. If you are serious about submitting to this program, this is a session you should not miss.

GTAs, GRAs, and GAs encouraged to attend session on Title IX Reporting

All K-State employees, including GTAs, GRAs, and GAs, are encouraged to attend "Title IX: Recognizing and Reporting Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence" on Sept. 11 in 206 K-State Student Union. As a result of this session, participants will, understand the university's legal obligation to enforce Title IX regulations, be aware of the complaint and investigation process, know prevention methods such as bystander intervention, be aware of reasonable options for supportive and protective measures available, and be aware of confidential resources and various reporting options. Register through HRIS self-service or send an email with your name, employee ID, and the course title to Samantha Roberts at learning-develop-hr@k-state.edu.

Graduate Student Council Travel Award Deadline for November travel

September 1 is the last day to apply for the Graduate Student Council Travel Awards if graduate students intend to travel in November. Graduate students who are traveling domestically can receive up to $500, those who travel internationally can receive up to $750.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Graduate School
119 Eisenhower Hall

785-532-6191
grad@k-state.edu
k-state.edu/grad