

K-State Graduate School

Weekly Newsletter

Week of October 23–27, 2017 Events and Deadlines

This weekly newsletter is sent out to dept. heads, graduate program directors, contact staff, and graduate faculty.

Graduate Faculty

Call for faculty mentors: 2018 Summer Undergraduate Research Opportunity Program

The Graduate School is searching for faculty mentors for the Summer Undergraduate Research Opportunity Program for summer 2018. SUROP is a program designed to provide research experience to undergraduate students. Deadline to express interest is Oct. 27.

Graduate Student Council calls for notable scholarly achievements by graduate students – Deadline to submit is today

The Graduate Student Council Awards and Recognition Committee would like to recognize all graduate students who have had notable scholarly achievements from spring 2017 semester to fall 2017 semester — March 28–Oct. 24 — such as awards at conferences, research forums, teaching awards, etc., or who have made exceptional contributions to the research knowledge-base or other scholarly contributions to their discipline. All recommendations should be made by K-State faculty who have worked with the students and feel the student should be recognized. Deadline to submit is Tuesday, Oct. 24.

Graduate Program Directors and Contact Staff

Plan to eat at Chipotle tonight, proceeds earned will go to graduate students

The Graduate Student Council is having a fundraiser at Chipotle in Aggieville on Tuesday, October 24. Stop by for dinner between 5–9 p.m. and 50% of the proceeds will go back to the Graduate Student Council. Mention the GSC or show the attached flyer for the GSC to earn credit.

Graduate School Fall Alumni Newsletter

Stay up-to-date with K-State graduate alumni and current graduate students by reading stories about the new Graduate Student Space, science communication at K-State, graduate student and faculty successes and creating the next generation of scientists.

Graduate Students

Application open for 2018 Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences Small Grant Program

The Graduate School announces the fourth year of funding for the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, or AHSS, Small Grant Program, to support research expenses for master's and doctoral students in their final year. Grants up to $1,000 will support direct research costs such as travel to an archive, data collection, or exhibition and performance expenses for graduate students doing original research in the arts, humanities and social sciences. Application deadline is Nov. 10.

Fall Graduation and Commencement Deadlines Approaching

Graduate students who plan to graduate this semester should thoroughly review the Graduation and Commencement information on the Graduate School website so that they are sure to complete all applicable requirements by stated deadlines. Graduate School degree analysts will review these requirements and deadlines and answer student questions in a session on Wednesday, Oct. 25 from 1:30–2:30 p.m. in 121 Eisenhower Hall. If students have questions about the requirements, deadlines, and their degree progress and are unable to attend the session on Wednesday, they are welcome to email the degree analyst assigned to their college (Angie, Jamie or Stephanie listed on the Graduation and Commencement page).

Graduate Student Space available on third floor of Eisenhower

The Graduate School is excited to announce the Graduate Student Space, located on the third floor of Eisenhower Hall, is open and available for graduate students to use effective immediately. The area has both social and quiet study space, as well as bookable rooms for group meetings, collaborative research space or to hold recurring GTA office hours during the semester.

