

GSC Travel Grant Application – Major Professor Endorsement

K-State graduate students who wish to be considered for a GSC Travel Award must submit this Major Professor Endorsement form with their GSC Travel Award application.

Graduate student applicant name:

WID:

Student's expected semester and year of graduation:

Name of event for which the student is applying for a GSC Travel Award:

Is the student presenting research or scholarly/creative work at this event?

Yes

The student is an author on a presentation but is not giving the presentation

No, the student is simply attending

No, but the student is actively participating in some other way (e.g., serving as a workshop coordinator, commentator, discussant, or panelist)

other:

If you answered "yes" above, what is the title of the presentation?

What is the student's authorship/creator status for this presentation?

1st or primary author/ creator

2nd author/ creator

3rd author/ creator or below

Was this work completed by the student during his or her graduate career at K-State?

Yes

No

Major Professor Endorsement

In the case that a student is unable to obtain a signature from the major professor and submit this form with the travel grant application by the deadline, a signature from the student's graduate program director or department head will be accepted.

Select one: Major Professor Program Director Department Head

Name:

Email address:

Signature:
