Celebrating Our Future

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your graduation!

Today is the day you have been working toward, and we couldn't be more thrilled to recognize the determination, persistence and diligence you have demonstrated by earning your degree. Know that your K-State family — faculty, staff and fellow students — alongside your own family and friends are so very proud of this important achievement and moment in your life.

We invite you to take a moment to reflect back on all you have accomplished as you've worked toward your degree. Think about the relationships you've built and the connections you've made. Consider what you knew when you began your degree versus what you now know and can do — and what's more, think about how the knowledge, skills and expertise you now possess will empower you to go out and serve the world around you. You are poised to make an incredible difference — in your career, in your community and in all you set your mind and heart to achieve.

As you take the next step in your journey, please know that K-State is still here for you every step of the way. You are now part of our network of more than 200,000 proud alumni worldwide, so there's a Wildcat in your corner in every corner of the globe. And, there are so many ways to stay connected to your alma mater:

- Continue your education with additional training or an additional degree.
- Share your experiences and expertise with other future or current K-Staters.
- Return to the spot you love full well to cheer on your 'Cats or attend a performance.
- Stay connected through the K-State Alumni Association, which, along with your college, is providing you and your fellow graduates with a free year of membership today!

K-State is a special place, and you're forever a part of that — and the memories you've made and connections you've forged will last a lifetime.

Congratulations again, and best wishes in all that you do.

Go 'Cats!

Alma Mater

by H.W. Jones, class of 1888

*I know a spot that I love full well,
'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell;
Ever it holds me with magic spell,
I think of thee, Alma Mater.*

*K-S-U, we'll carry thy banner high.
K-S-U, long, long may thy colors fly.
Loyal to thee, thy children will swell the cry.
Hail, Hail, Hail, Alma Mater.*

About Kansas State University

Founded in 1863 as the nation's first operational land-grant university, Kansas State University's mission is to foster excellent teaching, research and service to develop a highly skilled and educated citizenry necessary to advancing the well-being of Kansas, the nation and the international community. K-State embraces diversity and inclusion, encourages engagement and is committed to the discovery of knowledge, the education of undergraduate and graduate students, and improvement in the quality of life and standard of living of those we serve.

K-State has campuses in Manhattan, Olathe and Salina — home of the Aerospace and Technology Campus — as well as K-State Online, which serves distance education students around the world. When it comes to academics, K-State's majors and degree programs offer pathways to hundreds of career options that can be tailored to individual goals and dream careers. Interest areas offered through K-State's nine colleges and Graduate School include agriculture, food and natural resources; architecture, art and design; aviation; business; communications, media and marketing; computer science and information technology; education and leadership; engineering and construction; government, law and social sciences; health professions; hospitality and tourism; human and social services; humanities, culture and society; science and mathematics; veterinary medicine; and visual and performing arts.

Forbes magazine, U.S. News and World Report and The Princeton Review all recognize K-State as one of the best universities in the nation, which is backed by the strong support K-State receives from its alumni and friends. With more than 200,000 alumni, K-State's membership ranks Top 10 in the nation for the percentage of graduates who are members of the K-State Alumni Association. In 2020, the Kansas State University Foundation wrapped up the highly successful Innovation and Inspiration Campaign, raising $1.6 billion for K-State.

K-State is redefining what it means to be a next-generation land-grant university by serving all learners, solving global grand challenges and contributing to the economic prosperity of the state. K-State is home to the Biosecurity Research Institute, the Kansas Water Institute and the Institute for Digital Agriculture and Advanced Analytics. K-State is making a difference through interdisciplinary research.

Total research efforts at Kansas State University have led to more than 400 patents to date. The university has more than 90 research centers, including the 8,600-acre Konza Prairie Biological Station and the Johnson Cancer Research Center. Our distinguished faculty members are tackling such issues as food security, biosecurity, enabling technologies, community health and well-being, climate change, cybersecurity, sustainability, urban revitalization and more — and they often involve undergraduate students in their work. K-State Research and Extension also serves the citizens of Kansas in a variety of ways, with personnel, offices, research centers, programs and more throughout the state.

About Our Ceremonies

University mace

The Kansas State University mace made its debut in September 2009 at the inauguration of Kirk H. Schulz as the university's 13th president. A mace is a decorative symbol of office and typically carried at the front of academic processions. Designed by Tom Boley, a 1970 K-State alumnus, the mace is made from a purple wood called purpleheart and a light-colored maple.

Academic dress

The history of academic dress dates to medieval European universities of the 12th century. Universities in the U.S. have standardized academic dress so its features are common and uniform throughout the country.

The gown — K-State undergraduate gowns are purple, and graduate gowns are black. Gowns are typically made of synthetic material or worsted wool. The pattern varies with the degree held: open sleeves for the bachelor's degree; long, closed sleeves with slits for the hands for the master's degree; and round, bell sleeves for the doctoral degree.

The hood — Students receiving graduate degrees wear hoods. The master's hood is shorter than the doctoral hood and lacks the panels of the doctoral hood.

Hoods are lined with the colors of the university; K-State's lining is purple with two inverted chevrons. The binding or edging of the hood is the color pertaining to the subject of the degree.

The caps — All bachelor's candidates wear a purple mortarboard, and master's degree candidates wear a black mortarboard. Doctoral students may wear a mortarboard or a soft velvet tam with either six or eight sides. The tams can be dark blue or black for Doctor of Philosophy candidates and light blue for Doctor of Education candidates. Doctor of Veterinary Medicine candidates wear a black mortarboard. Tassel color for all degree candidates depends on the degree and/or degree field.

Graduation honors

Bachelor's degree candidates who are earning graduation honors from Kansas State University wear a purple-and-white honor cord on the left shoulder of their commencement gowns. Honors are awarded based on their K-State grade point averages. Eligible students also must have completed a minimum of 60 undergraduate hours at K-State, with at least 42 undergraduate hours in graded courses at K-State.

K-State graduation honors:

Summa cum laude — For students with a 3.95 or above GPA.

Magna cum laude — For students with a 3.85-3.949 GPA.

Cum laude — For students with a 3.75-3.849 GPA.

Note: Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree candidates receive these honors based on courses completed in the professional program. For the purpose of the commencement ceremony, unofficial graduation honors are recognized for bachelor's degree candidates who possess the required K-State cumulative GPA prior to the start of the semester in which they plan to participate in the commencement ceremony, and who have completed or are currently enrolled in enough credit hours to satisfy the credit hour requirements.

Speaker

Joshua Wexler

Joshua Wexler is an American producer, visionary and entrepreneur. During the last 30 years, he has pioneered "transmedia" production and has created and produced content across nearly every media platform with some of the biggest brands in the world, including Star Wars, Spider-Man, LEGO,

The Avengers, Star-Trek, Aliens, Batman, Shrek, NASCAR, Mortal Kombat, The Justice League and many others.

Wexler founded Pure Imagination in 2012 in Los Angeles, California. Pure Imagination is a full-service script-to-screen independent entertainment company focused on next-generation storytelling across all media platforms, including feature films, television, animation, web and immersive experiences. The company has been pioneering stereoscopic imagery, virtual and mixed reality, and real-time production for film, television and theme parks since its inception, reimagining the way content is created, distributed and consumed.

Pure Imagination consists of more than 300 industry professionals who are based all over the world. The company is a go-to partner for many multi-billion-dollar brands and properties. From DreamWorks, FOX, The LEGO Group, Universal, Marvel, Sony, Warner Bros., Disney and others, Pure Imagination has produced countless hours of content and experiences over the last decade. During the pandemic, Wexler leveraged Pure Imagination's spatial computing and real-time production platform, Continuum, and produced a series of award-winning Covid PSAs in just five weeks from script to screen.

Their slate of original projects includes a variety of feature films, television and animated TV shows and offerings, including a holiday movie starring JoJo Siwa and the recently released LEGO Dreamzzz on Netflix, Amazon and Peacock. This is in addition to cultural experiences, digital series, amusement park attractions, immersive experiences and virtual and augmented reality.

Wexler also co-founded Threshold Entertainment and Blackbelt TV when he started in feature films, and he oversaw creative and business development as president and raised more than $200M in financing for film and television projects. He holds a bachelor's degree in film from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts.

Kansas Board of Regents

Jon Rolph

Jon Rolph is president and CEO of Thrive Restaurant Group, which owns and operates over 150 restaurants, including Applebee's, Carlos O'Kelly's, HomeGrown, Modern Market and BakeSale. Thrive is the nation's second-largest Applebee's franchisee. The restaurants are in 15 states across the Midwest, the Carolinas and Appalachia.

Rolph was a two-time student body president at Baylor University, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2001. After graduating, Rolph worked with college student leaders as an intern for the National Student Leadership Forum in Washington, D.C. He returned to Kansas in 2002 to work in the family-owned businesses started by his father and his uncle, David and Darrel Rolph.

He has held several key positions in the company, including restaurant-level operations, vice president of administration and marketing, and COO of Carlos O'Kelly's, eventually succeeding his father as president of Sasnak Management, which was rebranded in early 2019 to Thrive Restaurant Group.

Rolph has served on the boards of several local and national organizations, including the Wichita Children's Home, United Way of the Plains, the Wichita Metro Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of Visioneering Wichita, the Center for Combating

Human Trafficking and the Wichita Metro YMCA boards. His current board memberships and affiliations include vice-chairman of the Greater Wichita Partnership, board of directors of INTRUST Bank, chairman of centralized supply chain services, chairman of the Applebee's Franchise Business Council, and the Baylor Collaborative on Hunger and Poverty.

Rolph serves as chairman of the Kansas Board of Regents.

Rolph and his wife, Lauren, are both fifth-generation Kansans. They have been married for more than 16 years and have six children.

Speaker

Tim Taylor

Tim Taylor was born in St. John, Kansas, to Roger and Christine Taylor, and he grew up in El Dorado, Kansas. He graduated from Circle High School in 1971. He worked in the local oil fields, pipelines and the refinery during his high school and college years.

After graduating from Kansas State University with a degree in chemical engineering in 1975, he moved to Longview, Texas, to work as a process engineer for Texas Eastman Company, a division of Eastman Kodak that produces petrochemicals and plastics from natural gas. There, he developed an interest in economics and business, and he studied business and accounting at Southern Methodist University and the University of Texas, Tyler. He passed the CPA exam with state and national honors.

In 1980, Taylor joined Phillips Petroleum Company's plastic division in Houston, Texas, working in strategic planning. He later joined the plastic marketing group and quickly learned that he enjoyed marketing and working with customers.

His career progressed through increasingly responsible positions at Phillips Petroleum until the chemical businesses of Chevron and Phillips were combined to form Chevron Phillips in 2000. Taylor started there as a senior vice president and eventually became chief operating officer. In his time there, CPChem nearly doubled in size, expanding operations around the globe.

Taylor joined Phillips 66 as executive vice president in 2012, and the company separated from ConocoPhillips later that year. Today, it is one of the largest independent refining, chemicals and midstream companies. Taylor served as president of the company from 2014 until his retirement in 2017.

He currently serves on the KSU Foundation board and is an advisor to Triten Energy Partners, a renewable energy company.

Taylor married his wife, Sharon, in 1976, and they live in Medina, Texas. Their son, Ryan, lives with his wife and four children in The Woodlands, Texas.

Awards

Commerce Bank and W.T. Kemper Foundation Distinguished Graduate Faculty Award

Jeffrey Pickering

Jeffrey Pickering, professor of political science, is an internationally recognized scholar whose research about cross-national foreign military intervention has helped to define understanding of the phenomenon. He has received two Distinguished Scholar Awards from the International Studies Association, or ISA, the preeminent academic association for the study of international relations.

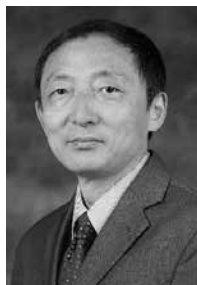

Pickering has published in major journal outlets and has authored two books and one edited volume. He co-authored a book with department colleague Emizet Kisangani for Cambridge University Press. The Peace Research Institute in Oslo, the University of Heidelberg in Germany and Uppsala University in Sweden have all invited Pickering to give international talks. This summer, he chaired the ISA's only panel at the International Political Science Association World Congress in Buenos Aires. Pickering has given talks at Georgetown University, Virginia Military Institute and other U.S. institutions.

He is the editor-in-chief of the International Studies Association journal International Interactions, and he served as a co-editor of the association's Foreign Policy Analysis journal. He is incoming co-editor-in-chief of ISA's flagship journal, International Studies Quarterly, and has served on the editorial boards of numerous journals. He was instrumental in K-State being selected to host the 2019 Peace Science Society annual conference.

Pickering's K-State graduate education contributions include designing the curriculum for the master's and doctoral programs in security studies.

Pickering earned his doctorate in political science from Indiana University, Bloomington, where he received the Samuel H. Beer Award for best dissertation written by a North American author from the British Politics Group. Since joining K-State's political science department in 1997, his work has been recognized with several awards, including the Commerce Bank and W.T. Kemper Foundation Outstanding Undergraduate Teaching Award, the William L. Stamey Award for Undergraduate Teaching, the Mortar Board Outstanding Professor Award and the Presidential Award for Outstanding Department Head.

Yong-Cheng Shi

Yong-Cheng Shi, professor of grain science and industry, has been a pioneer in the production of "resistant starch."

He received his doctorate in grain science with an emphasis in starch chemistry from K-State in 1993. He worked at the National Starch and Chemical Company as a leading inventor on 15 U.S. patents, four of which were commercialized with product sales annually in the tens of millions of dollars.

Shi joined the grain science department in 2006 and leads one of the largest research groups in the department. Thanks to his industrial experience and scientific accomplishments, half of Shi's research funding has been from industry.

He is listed among the top 2% of researchers in the world, according to a 2020 Stanford University study, and he has 17 granted U.S. patents and more than 100 publications. He co-edited a book with C. C. Maningat, "Resistant Starch: Sources, Application and Health Benefits," in 2013. Shi was an associate editor of Cereal Chemistry and currently sits on the Carbohydrate Polymers editorial board and the Starch advisory board.

Shi was the Belfort Lecturer at the Whistler Center for Carbohydrate Research, Purdue University, in 2015. He received the Phil Williams Applied Research Award from AACC International and was named an AACCI Fellow in 2016. In 2021, he received the Alsberg-French-Schoch Memorial Lectureship Award from the Cereals & Grains Association.

Shi's novel research has led to five patents or pending patents. Three companies have signed an agreement with K-State Innovation Partners and are actively evaluating technologies for licensing.

Shi has been the major advisor or co-advisor to 34 graduate students and has served on graduate advisory committees for 12 master's and 15 doctoral graduates. He served on five graduate advisory committees in other departments and as chair for doctoral students' final defenses in food science, physics, biochemistry and molecular biophysics, and agronomy.

Madeline Sue Grant

Major Professor: Evan C. Titgemeyer

Dissertation: The effects of methyl donor supply and methyl group status on growth performance, health, and methionine metabolism in growing cattle

Olivia Lynn Harrison

Major Professor: Cassandra K. Jones

Dissertation: Mitigation of swine pathogens in feed and feed manufacturing systems

Biochemistry

Doctor of Philosophy

Linah Mohammed A Alkotami

Major Professor: Timothy Patrick Durrett

Dissertation: Remodeling of TAG synthesis in emerging oilseed crops: genetic engineering for high-value seed oil

Sungmin Yoon

Major Professor: John M. Tomich

Dissertation: In depth investigation of Branched Amphipathic Peptide Capsules (BAPCs) for enhanced mRNA transfection efficiency

Biological and Agricultural Engineering

Doctor of Philosophy

Demilade Samuel Akinbile

Major Professor: Zifei Liu

Dissertation: Developing a decision tool to assist management of prescribed fires in the Flint Hills Region to reduce smoke impact on ambient ozone

Fei Xyza Bumagat Asuncion

Co-Major Professors: Mark Casada, Ronaldo

Maghirang and Donghai Wang

Dissertation: Computational fluid dynamics modeling of aerosol transport and deposition for stored product insect control

Biology

Doctor of Philosophy

Sophia Marie Bonjour

Major Professor: Keith B. Gido

Dissertation: *Migration timing, return patterns, and tradeoffs for the early life stage of tributary spawning flannelmouth sucker (Catostomus latipinnis)*

Emily Burghardt

Major Professor: Jocelyn A. McDonald

Dissertation: *Tipping the scales: How Drosophila border cells balance cellular requirements for a successful collective migration*

Emily Rose Wedel

Major Professor: Jesse Brian Nippert

Dissertation: Resource use strategies of woody plants in grassy ecosystems

Elizabeth Jane Wilson

Major Professor: Michael Tobler

Dissertation: Ecology and Evolution of Extremophiles

Chemical Engineering

Doctor of Philosophy

Liyang Fang

Major Professor: Chuancheng Duan

Dissertation: Enhancing power and fuel generation efficiency in solid oxide electrochemical cells via advanced electrode materials design

Fan Liu

Major Professor: Chuancheng Duan

Dissertation: Rational design advanced materials for energy conversion and storage: Fuel cells, electrolysis, and catalysis

Chemistry

Doctor of Philosophy

Muthunaidelage Asantha Lloyd Fernando

Major Professor: Ryan James Rafferty

Dissertation: Total synthetic efforts and structure elucidation in route to brocazine and cabunitamycin natural products

Kongahapathirage Dona Shashika Sevandi Perera

Major Professor: Ryan James Rafferty

Dissertation: Total synthesis of Lagunamide C, synthesis of the proposed natural product Lagunamide E, and their biological evaluation

Sabari Rajendran

Major Professor: Jun Li

Dissertation: Developing nanostructured electrodes for renewable energy applications

Yuchen Wang

Major Professor: Christine M. Aikens

Dissertation: Advanced computational methods for studying noble metal nanoclusters: From quantum chemistry to machine learning

Community College Leadership

Doctor of Education

Ramiro Galicia

Co-Major Professors: Michael Burke and Margaretta Mathis

Dissertation: The complex lives of community college students pursuing career technical degrees and certificates: An exploration of time prioritization from students' perspectives

Brenda Kay Madore

Co-Major Professors: Margaretta Mathis and Kathleen Sigler

Dissertation: The path to parity: Exploring the lived experience of first-at-institution female community college presidents

Lindy Matthews

Major Professor: Margaretta B. Mathis

Dissertation: The silent tsunami: Addressing community college food insecurity in Texas

Tynisha Nicole McGee

Major Professor: Christine Johnson McPhail

Dissertation: The California Community Colleges Historically Black Colleges and Universities Transfer Guarantee Program: Case Study

Carmen Prado Newland

Co-Major Professors: Margaretta Mathis and Sandy Robinson

Dissertation: The menopause transition experience of female community college leaders

Computer Science

Doctor of Philosophy

Raja Farrukh Ali

Major Professor: William Henry Hsu

Dissertation: Non-exponential reward discounting in reinforcement learning

Aaron Eberhart

Major Professor: Pascal Hitzler

Scott Allen Hutchison

Major Professor: Daniel A. Andresen

Dissertation: Machine learning for high performance computing applications

Bishwas Mandal

Major Professor: George Amariucui

Dissertation: An investigation of the application of autoencoders and large-language models to privacy-utility tradeoffs in group-specific settings

Kai Zhao

Major Professor: Mitchell Larry Neilsen

Dissertation: Automated phenotyping of seeds using traditional and Convolutional Neural Network (CNN) based methods

Counseling and Student Development

Doctor of Philosophy

Heidi Fergel

Major Professor: Alexander Thomas Becnel

Dissertation: Zoom fatigue and burnout among traditional, hybrid, and distance counselor educators

Michelle Alpie Strowbridge

Major Professor: Craig M. McGill

Dissertation: Feminist Academic Advising

Curriculum and Instruction

Doctor of Education

Marybeth Lao Bano-Rizzo

Major Professor: Sherri L. Martinie

Dissertation: Exploring the relationship between secondary mathematics teachers characteristics, beliefs and use of technology: A mixed methods approach

CindyJo Fryer

Major Professor: Suzanne Lynn Porath

Dissertation: Classical education in a nonclassical school: A scholarly personal narrative

Jamie Elizabeth Hibbs

Major Professor: Suzanne Lynn Porath

Dissertation: Teachers' experience of changes to their teaching methods because of the COVID19 pandemic: A case study of teacher experiences during remote learning in a rural school district.

Alana Lea Kupersmith

Major Professor: Jeffrey S. Clark

Dissertation: Online curriculum development/review and resource contribution in partnership with the Hibulb Cultural Center and Natural History Preserve

Evangeline Li

Major Professor: Jeffrey S. Clark

Dissertation: The impact of self-efficacy and acculturation on the mathematics performance of immigrant students or minority students with an immigrant background in an urban high school

Ellen Sara Moskowitz

Co-Major Professors: Angela Kraemer-Holland and Tuan Dinh Nguyen

Dissertation: Guiding early educators with andragogy: A mixed-methods case study of new teacher induction, support, and development

Doctor of Philosophy

Tracey Lynne Conway

Major Professor: Freelon T. Goodson

Dissertation: Navigating a commercial literacy program: A first-year teacher's self-efficacy journey

Blake Morgan Madsen-Davila

Co-Major Professors: Lotta Larson and Vicki Sherbert

Dissertation: "But David can't read." The evolution of literacy experiences during the rapid shift to Emergency Remote Teaching"

Economics

Doctor of Philosophy

Aisha Ibrahim Adam

Major Professor: Valerie K. Bostwick

Dissertation: 3 Essays in applied microeconomics with policy implications

Ailun Li

Major Professor: Peri Agostinho Da Silva Jr.

Dissertation: Three essays on environmental Engel curves and international trade

Jiazhen Liu

Major Professor: Steven P. Cassou

Dissertation: Three essays on the effects of oil prices on imports and exports to China

Educational Leadership

Doctor of Education

Brandon Jamaal Cheeks Sr

Major Professor: Sean Alexander Redcorn

Dissertation: Autoethnographic reflections on United States Educational Reform: An African American male perspective on educational reform in predominantly white communities in Kansas. "Am I one of them ones"

Ralita C. Estwick Cheeks

Major Professor: Sean Alexander Redcorn

Dissertation: If you don't know my story, please don't judge my walk: A critical autoethnographic journey of a black female, counselor transitioning into a DEIB leadership role

Daniel Morgan Farley

Major Professor: Donna Mae Augustine-Shaw

Dissertation: A case study of superintendent leadership behaviors: Bridging the transition between a new and long serving superintendent

Margaret Nicole Heiman

Co-Major Professors: Donna Augustine-Shaw and Jerry Johnson

Dissertation: Connecting postsecondary quality of life to promises of IDEA, an issue of educational equity

Electrical and Computer Engineering

Doctor of Philosophy

Deepesh Agarwal

Major Professor: Balasubramaniam Natarajan

Dissertation: Learning and inferencing challenges in human-in-the-loop decision systems

Mehmetcan Gursoy

Major Professor: Behrooz Mirafzal

Dissertation: Autonomous grid-forming inverters in microgrids

Biswajeet Rout

Major Professor: Balasubramaniam Natarajan

Dissertation: Secure decentralized state estimation and control for smart distribution grids

Chunlin Yi

Major Professor: Caterina Maria Scoglio

Dissertation: Modeling and forecasting infectious diseases

Nooshin Zeinali

Major Professor: Punit Prakash

Dissertation: Towards precise microwave ablation systems

Entomology

Doctor of Philosophy

Michael J. Aikins

Major Professor: Thomas W. Phillips

Dissertation: Aggregation pheromone of Tribolium castaneum (Coleoptera: Tenebrionidae): Geographic variation, biosynthesis inferred by RNAi gene silencing, and neuroendocrine effects on production

Food Science

Doctor of Philosophy

Ellen Andrea Mendez Sosa

Major Professor: Jessie L. Vipham

Dissertation: Evaluating contamination levels in fresh foods markets and assessing the likelihood of implementing food safety programs in Paraguay

Baheaja Jameel Zaitoun

Co-Major Professors: Jayendra Amamcharla and J. Scott Smith

Dissertation: Understanding the stability of low- and high-acid, high-protein dairy-based beverages

Genetics

Doctor of Philosophy

Augusto Tessele

Major Professor: Allan Kent Fritz

Dissertation: The role of epistasis on the genetic gain in wheat

Geography

Doctor of Philosophy

Nicholas Reilly McCarroll

Major Professor: Arnaud Josephus Temme

Dissertation: Hillslope evolution of heterolithic landscapes – Investigating processes and controls on geomorphic development of staircase landscapes

Joel Radunzel

Major Professor: James Michael Shawn Hutchinson

Dissertation: War and ecology: A heuristic for exploring the environmental disruptions of armed conflict

Grain Science

Doctor of Philosophy

Sang Li

Major Professor: Yi Zheng

Dissertation: Biotransformation of starch crops to anticancer compounds and efficacy analysis by using a 3D mimic in vivo system

Manivannan Selladurai

Major Professor: Subramanyam Bhadriraju

Dissertation: Characterization and evaluation of two amorphous silica powders against stored product insect species on concrete surfaces and wheat

Anu Suprabha Raj

Major Professor: Kaliramesh Siliveru

Dissertation: Baking quality of hard winter wheat: Impact of pre-harvest conditions and postharvest processing

Health and Human Sciences

Doctor of Philosophy

Cassandra Maria Beattie

Major Professor: Gina M. Besenyi

Dissertation: Breaking barriers: In depth analyses of gym accessibility and its impact on physical activity

Brady Christopher Eisert

Major Professor: Jared R. Anderson

Dissertation: Do relationship investment plans increase couples' commitment to therapy?

Kamille Marie Greene

Co-Major Professors: Jared Anderson and Chelsea Spencer

Dissertation: Promoting change through the voices of Black graduate students: A qualitative exploration of the experiences of Black graduate students in MFT programs

Lindsay Ann Howard

Major Professor: Glade Legrand Topham

Dissertation: Longitudinal association of involvement and monitoring during early adolescence and empathy and value regulation during emerging adulthood

Juhwan Lim

Major Professor: Jichul Jang

Dissertation: Using machine-learning approach to predict Big-five personality traits based on subconscious behaviors

Megan Lynn Palmer

Co-Major Professors: Jared Anderson and Chelsea Spencer

Dissertation: An Examination of how Individuals Experience a Traumatic Bond: A Latent Profile Analysis based on Traumatic Bonding Theory

Aspen Elaine Streetman

Major Professor: Emily Louise Mailey

Dissertation: Empowering women to be more physically active through high-intensity resistance training

History

Doctor of Philosophy

Claudio Roberto Innocenti

Major Professor: Andrew Orr

Dissertation: Only a transitory evil: The diplomatic benefits of Italian military defeats from 1896 to 1936

Jennifer Day Tope

Major Professor: Louise A. Breen

Speaker

Erin and Ben Schroeder

in 2004 after Erin's graduation from Kansas State University's College of Veterinary Medicine. Ben also graduated from K-State Vet Med in 2002 and stayed in beautiful Manhattan, Kansas, working as a veterinarian for Little Apple Veterinary Clinic while Erin finished her schooling.

Erin and Ben Schroeder are married veterinarians from Hartington, Nebraska. They live and work in rural Cedar County, where Ben's father, John Schroeder, has practiced since the early 1970s. The couple joined the practice

Little did they know when they received their diplomas that 15 years later, they would have the amazing opportunity to shoot a television program that shares the veterinary profession with the world from the perspective of a pair of rural mixed animal vets. "Heartland Docs, DVM" is a true depiction of what veterinarians face day-to-day, including the difficulties and triumphs, the good days and the tough ones.

The Schroeders have two sons, Charles and Chase, who they say are by far their greatest accomplishment. In addition to veterinary medicine, the doctors have found a love for renovating buildings. They liken fixing up an old, run-down building to caring for a sick or injured animal. Both take a lot of love and compassion and can sometimes be incredibly challenging. However, in the end, a beautiful renovation and a happy, healthy animal are so worth it!

Veterinarian's Oath

Being admitted to the profession of veterinary medicine, I solemnly swear to use my scientific knowledge and skills for the benefit of society through the protection of animal health and welfare, the prevention and relief of animal suffering, the conservation of animal resources, the promotion of public health, and the advancement of medical knowledge.

I will practice my profession conscientiously, with dignity, and in keeping with the principles of veterinary medical ethics.

I accept as a lifelong obligation the continual improvement of my professional knowledge and competence.

Speaker

Clemente Jaquez

Clemente Jaquez is a first-generation entrepreneur and architect. As a child, he visited construction sites with his father and was greatly influenced by architecture early in his career. He clearly saw the idea of the master architect as the orchestrator of the built environment. Today, Jaquez's approach aims to create architecture that touches on the excitement of our human experience.

Jaquez's background and experience working for global and local firms allowed him to travel the world and expand his understanding of architecture at all scales. The diversity of projects and experiences has been foundational to his growth as a leader, designer and business entrepreneur.

In 2019, Jaquez and his business partner established MODUS architecture. The firm embraces a straightforward mission: work with purpose and design for people. Since its inception, MODUS has diversified its portfolio of projects in health care, commercial and hospitality. Most notably, MODUS architecture is part of the design team commissioned for the renovation and expansion of the historical Cotton Bowl Stadium at the Dallas Fair Park.

Jaquez is a fervent community advocate and currently serves as the 2024 president of the Dallas Architecture and Design Foundation, a member of the Dean's Advisory Council for the College of Architecture, Planning & Design, and a committed board member of the St. Paul Classical Catholic School. Jaquez received his master's degree from Kansas State University and is a registered architect in Texas. Besides being an avid community designer, his vocation is to educate his two young boys and two younger girls to be design thinkers and embrace the challenges and opportunities of life.

Speaker

Debbie K. Mercer

Debbie K. Mercer is Kansas State University's interim provost and executive vice president. She has been the dean of the College of Education at K-State since 2012. Her career began as a library media specialist, and she then served as a kindergarten teacher in a rural Kansas school district.

She accepted a faculty position at Fort Hays State University in 1998 and quickly ascended through the ranks and was named interim dean in 2005 and dean in 2006, a position she held until her appointment as associate dean of K-State's College of Education in 2010. Mercer holds four degrees from Kansas State University: a doctorate and master's degree in curriculum and instruction, a bachelor's degree in elementary education, and a bachelor's degree in family and child development.

Mercer is proud to posthumously honor Michael C. Holen, dean emeritus of the College of Education at K-State, with the 2024 Dan and Cheryl Yunk Award for Excellence in Educational Leadership. The Yunks were both exemplary teachers and administrators throughout their careers in the Manhattan-Ogden school system. Established in their honor, this award recognizes the importance of educational administrators in creating environments that promote excellence in student learning. Holen, in his service as dean from 1990-2012, personified this trait of service and was recognized both nationally and internationally.

Oath of Education

I hereby pledge my dedication to the profession of teaching. I accept the obligations and the challenges of guiding students to knowledge, always showing them care and concern. I will encourage respect for all people, and will cultivate the disciplined, yet free minds necessary for a democratic way of life.

I promise to champion policies which promote quality in teaching and learning. I will provide everyone engaged in education the opportunity to achieve their own level of excellence. I will strive to become a knowledgeable, ethical, caring decision-maker and emulate these qualities which I pledge to foster. I recognize that at times my endeavors may prove discouraging. Nonetheless, I remain faithful to the belief that my actions in the pursuit of these goals make me worthy of my profession, and make my profession worthy of a free people.

Speaker

Bill Keller

Bill Keller was born and raised in St. Francis, Kansas, with four siblings. His father, Ed Keller, earned a degree from K-State's College of Veterinary Medicine in 1941 and was a veterinarian, rancher and farmer. Keller's mother, Rachael Wagaman Keller, graduated from K-State's College of Arts and Sciences in 1942 and was a home economics extension agent, teacher and partner with her husband in all they did.

Keller attended K-State on a wrestling scholarship and wrestled varsity all four years of his college career. After starting as a civil engineering major, he switched to pre-law and graduated from K-State in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in political science. He attended the University of Kansas School of Law, where he met his future wife, Cindy Stanion.

After working in a small law firm for a few years, he decided practicing law was not the best career choice for him and began his career at Stanion Wholesale Electric Co. in 1978. He moved to the corporate office in 1982. Keller was named president of Stanion in 1990 and continues to serve in that role.

Stanion Wholesale Electric Co. is an independent wholesale electric distributor serving Kansas and the surrounding states. Stanion was founded in June of 1961 when Bobbe and Jud Stanion, Cindy's parents, purchased an electrical repair and supply business from a local businessman. From four employees in 1961, the company has grown as a family-run business with 16 branches in Kansas and one in Liberty, Missouri. The company operates with a strong culture, a small-town work ethic, and an urgency to serve its employees, customers and vendors.

Bill and Cindy have three children, all K-State graduates, and six grandchildren. Bill has long supported K-State, serving on the K-State Alumni Association board of directors, two advisory boards for K-State Athletics, and the KSU Foundation board of trustees.

Speaker

Jerry L. Hatfield

Jerry L. Hatfield is the retired director of the U.S. Department of Agriculture-Agriculture Research Service, or USDA-ARS, National Laboratory for Agriculture and the Environment in Ames, Iowa. Hatfield is a Kansas native and grew up on a farm south of Wamego. He received a bachelor's degree in agronomy from Kansas State University in 1971, a master's in agronomy from the University of Kentucky in 1972 and a doctorate in agricultural climatology with a statistics minor from Iowa State University in 1975. He worked at the University of California-Davis as a biometeorologist, and in 1983, he joined USDA-ARS at the Plant Stress and Water Conservation Unit in Lubbock, Texas. He transferred to Ames in 1989 to develop the research program of the National Soil Tilth Laboratory, which has since been renamed the National Laboratory for Agriculture and the Environment.

Hatfield's research explored how producers can increase their production efficiency and soil health and develop resilience to weather and climate variation as the foundation for food security. His current activities focus on helping producers understand soil health and its impacts on production, profit, sustainability and environmental quality.

His outreach efforts have included participation in the National Climate Assessment as the U.S. lead author for agriculture and the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change. Hatfield ranks in the top 2% of researchers in the world, and he is an accomplished author with 513 refereed publications, 18 monographs and numerous editorial positions.

Hatfield's numerous awards include being inducted into the USDA-ARS Hall of Fame for his research impact on environmental quality and farming systems, the Hugh Hammond Bennett Award and the Soil Science Society of America Distinguished Service Award. He is a Fellow of the American Society of Agronomy, the Crop Science Society of America and the Soil Science Society of America, and he currently serves on the board of directors for the Soil and Water Conservation Society.

Hatfield received the Distinguished Alumni Fellow award from K-State in 2011.

Speaker

David C. Poole

Health and Human Sciences. He is a world-renowned expert on how the body transports and uses oxygen during exercise.

Poole has spent the past 29 years at K-State, and, together with Tim Musch, Ph.D., he directs scientific discovery with colleagues and students in the Clarenburg Cardiorespiratory Laboratory. Their work seeks to improve the quality of life and outcomes for patients with chronic diseases by improving oxygen delivery to skeletal muscle.

Poole was born in Kenya and raised among the castles of Wales. He was educated in Wales, England and California. After college, he backpacked the length of Africa from Cape

David C. Poole is a distinguished professor of kinesiology and physiology and director of the Cardiorespiratory Exercise Laboratory at Kansas State University. He holds the Coffman Chair for Distinguished University Teaching Scholars and the Elizabeth Chapin Burke Chair for Town, South Africa, to Cairo, Egypt. During the yearlong journey, he was treed by lions in Zambia, burned quite severely in Kenya's Lake Bogoria hot springs, and jailed in post-Idi Amin's Uganda for being in the wrong place at the wrong time. Just as memorable and far more pleasant were the countless trails and remote villages where he met incredible people, many with an unparalleled thirst for education and discovery.

Poole plays semi-competitive squash, kayaks, cycles and enjoys traveling with his wife, Katherine, and son, Kelton.

Poole earned his bachelor's degree in applied physiology/exercise science from Liverpool Polytechnic, his doctorate in kinesiology from the University of California, Los Angeles, and a Doctor of Science from Liverpool John Moores University. His distinguished lectureships include the American Physiological Society's Adolph in 2018, the American College of Sports Medicine's Wolffe Memorial in 2021 and the American Physiological Society's Historical Lecture in 2022. In 2024, he was named the Higuchi-Dolph Simons Award winner, Kansas' highest academic honor for biomedical sciences.

Speaker

has more than 28 years of experience in the electric transmission and distribution industry in design, project management and business development. In addition to his nationwide responsibilities, he also serves as the executive sponsor for T&D's international business ventures in the United Kingdom, Canada and Mexico, supporting the company's in-country business development, client engagement and contracting strategies.

Gabriel "Gabe" Hernandez is a vice president in the Transmission & Distribution Group, or T&D, at Burns & McDonnell in Kansas City, Missouri. He supports the T&D business operations for substations, high-voltage transmission lines, telecommunication networks and transportation electrification. Hernandez

In 2023, Burns & McDonnell's Transmission & Distribution Group was named the No. 1 T&D design firm in North America by Engineering News-Record for the eighth consecutive year, providing design and project management services for investor-owned utilities, municipalities, developers, and industrial and Fortune 500 companies.

Hernandez earned his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Kansas State University in 1995 and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Missouri, Kansas City, in 2015. He is a licensed professional engineer registered in Kansas, Virginia, California and Puerto Rico.

He currently serves on the KSU Foundation board of directors, the Foundation for Engineering at Kansas State University, the KSU Charitable Real Estate Foundation, UMKC's board of trustees, the dean's advisory council for UMKC's Bloch School of Management and the board of directors for the Guadalupe Centers, Inc. in Kansas City. In September 2023, Hernandez led the opening of the Student Success Center at K-State, the first Burns & McDonnell office to open on a university campus.

University Distinguished Professors

The title of University Distinguished Professor is the highest honor Kansas State University can bestow on its faculty. This lifetime title recognizes faculty making outstanding contributions to teaching, research and service to their professions and communities. University Distinguished Professors are appointed following a universitywide competition conducted by the provost and executive vice president. Each recipient receives a commemorative medallion upon appointment.

Coffman Chair for University Distinguished Teaching Scholars

The Coffman Chair for University Distinguished Teaching Scholars was created in 1995 to underscore Kansas State University's commitment to excellence in undergraduate teaching and learning. A faculty member acknowledged as a leading teaching scholar is appointed to the chair by the university's provost and executive vice president for one academic year. All who hold the chair retain the title of University Distinguished Teaching Scholar throughout their careers. During the year in residence, the scholar's time and resources are spent advancing the interests of undergraduate teaching and learning at the university.

Alumni membership

All colleges have provided graduates with a one-year membership to the K-State Alumni Association. Graduates also will receive a gift from the alumni association in recognition of their graduation. K-Staters are some of the most loyal alumni in the country, and we are excited to welcome you into a new relationship with your alma mater. The K-State Alumni Association is your link for life to K-State. Learn more and stay connected by visiting K-State.com.

Program notes

The organ used in ceremonies at Bramlage Coliseum has been donated by Dina and David Rankin in memory of Dina Rankin's parents, Jack and Karen Beightel.

Jason Frazier is the bagpiper for K-State Salina, the Graduate School and the College of Veterinary Medicine. David Morrison is the bagpiper for all other undergraduate ceremonies.
