Understanding Your Role as a K-State Supervisor
Presented by Human Capital Services

This session is suitable for all academic, professional, and support staff with management and/or leadership roles across the University. Participants will understand the importance of a leader who encourages and guides employees, advances teamwork, inspires trust, and optimizes results.

Effectively Utilizing K-State Policies and University Handbook
Presented by Human Capital Services, Office of Institutional Equity, & the Provost Office

This session provides an interactive opportunity for supervisors to apply K-State employment policies and the University handbook.

Prerequisite online trainings: Benefit Your Team, FLSA Basics: What Do You Need to Know, Recognizing Discrimination & Sexual Harassment, and Americans with Disabilities Act.

Mindful Communication for Supervisors
Presented by Communications Studies

This session will provide participants insight into their own communication styles and anxieties. Participation will help supervisors understand how verbal and nonverbal communication can help to create more mindful, effective messages to employees.

Understanding Legal & Ethical Responsibilities of Supervisors
Presented by Office of General Counsel & College of Business Administration Management Faculty

This session is designed to introduce participants to legal concepts by providing an overview of key laws and policies impacting the workplace. Participants will learn how to spot legal issues and how to best utilize resources to assist with potential legal and ethical concerns.

Beyond Race: Diversity and Inclusion in the Workplace
Presented by Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer

This session will address the importance of employees seeing beyond the race of their colleagues and understanding characteristics most notable associated with positive and productive work environment. This session will help participants understand their own characteristics, their colleagues’ characteristics, and how this knowledge can help make our work environment better in variety of ways.
Building Your Conflict Management Toolkit
Presented by Human Capital Services

Enhance your confidence in managing conflict within your department/unit by building your toolkit geared towards your supervisory role in responding to challenging situations that naturally occur within the workplace.

Collaborative Communication for Supervisors
Presented by Communications Studies

This session focuses on communication and decision-making, highlighting ways that communication can facilitate or hinder collaborative decision-making practices in the workplace.

Performance Management: Supervisory Best Practices
Presented by Human Capital Services

This highly interactive session will highlight the strategic best practices necessary for efficiently completing performance reviews and disciplinary action. It will also emphasize the supervisor’s role in coaching employees for success and providing support.

Prerequisite online trainings: Attendance Guidelines, Taking Corrective Action, and Evaluating USS Work Performance - The Evaluation Form, and Best Practices for Evaluating Unclassified Professional.

The Strategic Leader
Presented by Staley School of Leadership Studies

In this session participants will gain a deeper understanding of their own leadership styles and have an introduction to the leadership styles of others through completing the StrengthsQuest Assessment. Participants will then explore strategies to increase engagement and motivate their colleagues. Through case-studies, participants will explore how to speak to loss and manage change at the unit and organizational level.

---

June 17
8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
Banquet Room
Alumni Center

June 19
9:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
Banquet Room
Alumni Center

June 19
1:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.
Banquet Room
Alumni Center

June 21
8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
Banquet Room
Alumni Center