

A FAMILY
BUILT ON

KANSAS STATE
UNIVERSITY

Honor and
Integrity System

CHOICE | LEARNING | PROMISE

HONOR@K-STATE.EDU | 785-532-2595

K-STATE.EDU/HONOR

Choices as a Faculty Member

- Modeling the behavior you wish to see in students.
- Thoroughly explaining requirements and assignment expectations.
- Discouraging academic misconduct and dishonesty.
- Reporting violations through the Honor and Integrity System (online form via ksu.edu/honor)

Learning

- Committed to providing students with opportunities to develop the knowledge, understanding, and skills of an educated person.
- Committed to assisting students in thinking through ethical and moral decisions.
- The Honor and Integrity System is in place to hold students accountable but also help them learn - please use us!

Promise

“On my honor, as a student, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this academic work.”

- Should be on your syllabus
- Talk about what it means
- Give examples of possible violations (plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, unauthorized aid, falsification, etc.)

A FAMILY
BUILT ON

Facebook: @kstatehonorandintegrity

Email: honor@ksu.edu

Web: www.k-state.edu/honor