

CONSTITUTION

International Coordinating Council Kansas State University

Preamble

We, the representatives of various national and international student organizations at Kansas State University, recognizing the need for unity and organization in the pursuit of our common objectives, and being dedicated to international fellowship and understanding, do hereby establish and adopt this Constitution.

Article I – Name and Sponsorship

The organization shall be officially known as the International Coordinating Council (ICC) of Kansas State University. The Department of International Student and Scholar Services shall serve as the official sponsor and overseer of the organization. International Student and Scholar Services has the final authority over the organization.

Article II – Objectives

1. To promote cooperation, understanding, and fellowship among students of all nationalities at Kansas State University.
 2. To work toward improving the living conditions of international students at Kansas State University.
 3. To foster positive relations between international and domestic students.
 4. To advocate on issues affecting international students, including matters related to faculty, administration, community, and peer relations.

Article III – Membership

1. Membership shall be open to all domestic and international students and their spouses, provided a super majority of members are students and international.
2. Membership is granted at the discretion of the previous year's executive committee upon a successful application and interview.
3. To be eligible for the position of President, a candidate must have served on the outgoing executive committee unless no member from the outgoing committee is available. In such a case, or when deemed necessary, the advisor may open the position to the public. The advisor is responsible for nominating and approving the President, based on leadership and management capabilities.
