

~~COLUMBUS DAY~~

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY

FROM ERASURE TO ACTIVISM: RESTORING INDIGENOUS NARRATIVES

Topics include raising awareness and organizing in local contexts; digital storytelling; Indigenous students in K-12; youth organizing; public policy

OCTOBER 9, 2017

Staley School of Leadership Studies
9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

JOSEPH ERB, M.F.A.

(Cherokee)

Assistant Teaching Professor, Digital Storytelling,
University of Missouri, Columbia

9:00 a.m. | Leadership Studies Town Hall

DR. ROBERT WARRIOR

(Osage)

Hall Distinguished Professor, Indigenous Studies, American Literature and Culture, University of Kansas

10:30 a.m. | Leadership Studies Town Hall

DR. HOLLIE J. MACKAY

(Northern Cheyenne)

Associate Professor, Women's and Gender Studies; Associate
Co-Director, UCEA Jackson Scholars Network; and Director,
Title IX and Equity Consortium, University of Oklahoma

2:30 p.m. | Leadership Studies Town Hall

Breakout Sessions – 1:30 p.m.

Topics: Local and Regional Trends and Issues in Indigenous Education, Activism, and more

Meeting of the Kansas Association for Native American Educators (KANAE) – 3:30 p.m.

SPONSORS | Indigenous Alliance | Staley School of Leadership Studies | College of Education (Dean's Office, Department of Educational Leadership, Diversity for Community Committee, Social Justice Education Graduate Certificate) | College of Arts and Sciences (Dean's Office, Department of English, Diversity Committee) | LGBT Resource Center | Dow Center for Multicultural and
Community Studies at K-State Libraries | Multicultural Engineering Program | Global Campus

For complete schedule, registration and live stream info, visit:
k-state.edu/indigenous-alliance

KANSAS STATE
UNIVERSITY