Internal Audit

Welcome to the Kansas State University Internal Audit Office Home Page. This site was developed to provide information about our offices and to provide useful information about K-State Policies and Procedures as well as references to other informative sites.

The K-State Internal Audit Office is committed to assisting University management by providing an independent appraisal within Kansas State University to determine the appropriateness, soundness, and adequacy of the University accounting, financial and operational controls. These appraisals provide information and recommendations to University administrators.

In addition to the formal audits, we are happy to answer questions and give advice regarding specific policies and procedures and act as consultants on internal controls.

You will find more information about the K-State Campus under the button "Resources" shown on the left.

We hope this site will provide you with helpful information regarding the Internal Audit Office and our function. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions, suggestions, or comments.

Anonymous Reporting Hotline

Instances of discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, or acts of sexual or relationship violence should be reported by completing the Office of Institutional Equity online reporting form.

Kansas State University values the highest standards of honesty, integrity, and professionalism, and expects employees to act ethically and legally while supporting the university's mission and strategic goals.

The ethics and compliance hotline is an anonymous, 24/7 resource for reporting concerns regarding legal or policy violations or unethical behavior. We are committed to always doing the right thing. Employees who believe they are aware of a violation are expected and encouraged to report their concerns. You may use any of the following methods to submit a report.
