

Process Used For Developing Standards

Timeline for Standards Development

Timeline	Assessed Curricular Standards	Non-Assessed or Model Curricular Standards	Timeline	Assessed Curricular Standards	Non-Assessed or Model Curricular Standards
Approximately 4-5 months before Curricular Standards are scheduled to be revised or developed. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Winter before standards are scheduled to be revised or developed. * Spring before standards are scheduled to be revised or developed. Year of Curricular Standards Revision	Committee Member Identification Committee Member Names sent to State Board of Education. State Board reserves the right to make changes as deemed appropriate	Committee Member Identification	February - March March - April	Second draft of the Curricular standards is placed on the KSDE homepage. Feedback from the field is obtained via online survey. Conduct 4-6 public hearings on the curricular standards. National expert review on curricular standards is requested. Committee meets to review feedback from surveys, public comment, and expert review. If necessary, changes are made to the curricular standards and a third draft is developed for the State Board's review.	Second draft of the curricular standards is placed on the KSDE homepage. Feedback from the field is obtained via online survey. Conduct 4-6 public hearings on the curricular standards. Committee meets to review feedback from surveys, public comment. If necessary, changes are made to the curricular standards and a third draft is developed for the State Board's review.
July	First committee meeting	First committee meeting
August	Committee meets to work on the curricular standards	Committee meets to work on the curricular Standards	May	State Board receives third draft. If required by the State Board, additional changes are made on the standards and a fourth draft is developed.	State Board receives third draft. If required by the State Board, additional changes are made on the standards and a fourth draft is developed.
September	Committee meets to work on the curricular standards	Committee meets to work on the curricular Standards
October	Committee meets to work on the curricular standards and a first draft of the curricular standards is completed. Work begins with special education educators on extended curricular standards	Committee meets to work on the curricular standards and a first draft of the curricular standards is completed.	June	The State Board acts on approving the adoption of the Kansas Curricular Standards.	The State Board acts on approving the Kansas Model Curricular Standards.
November	A copy of the first draft of the curricular standards are prepared for presentation to the State Board of Education	A copy of the first draft of the curricular standards are prepared for presentation to the State Board of Education
December	State Board receives the first draft of the curricular standards	State Board receives the first draft of the curricular standards
January	Committee meets to work on the second draft of the curricular standards. Begin plans on meetings for public comment.	Committee meets to work on the second draft of the curricular standards. Begin plans on meetings for public comment.

Module I – Part II: Development of Standards, Benchmarks and Indicators

Content standards are developed solely by KSDE staff.

True or False

The correct answer is (False)

Can a classroom teacher be a member of a state standards advisory committee?

True or False

The correct answer is (True)

Assessed standards are labeled as adopted by The Kansas State Board of Education.

True or False

The correct answer is (True)

Assessed standards are called Kansas Model Curricular Standards.

True or False

The correct answer is (False)