May 19, 2020 to June 20, 2020

Travel to Orvieto, a historic hill town in central Italy, while satisfying Honors requirements! The UHP and KSU in Italy have partnered for Summer 2020, allowing Honors students to earn 6 hours of Honors credit by taking Culture and Context in Leadership or Cross-Cultural Psychology and one other course (options listed below).

LEAD 502 Culture and Context in Leadership

Instructor: Prof. Andy Wefald

The Honors version of LEAD 350 assists students in becoming more interculturally effective. Students, regardless of their identity group, will be challenged to explore and discover their cultural identity from a values based perspective. Students will explore strategies and skills necessary to analyze intercultural experiences, events, and dilemmas. The concept of power and privilege will be discussed as psychological constructs operating across all cultures and contexts. Exploring other cultures and learning to have fun doing so is also a part of the curriculum. Fulfills Leadership Studies minor requirements; Satisfies course requirements for Honor’s program.

PSYCH 590 Cross-Cultural Psychology

Instructor: Prof. Gary Brase

The Honors version of PSYCH 538 is an introduction to general theories and methods related to understanding the role of culture in human psychology. We will focus on how human psychology and behaviors both differ and are constant across cultures, and sometimes within subcultures. Topics may include perception, cognitive processes, development, emotions and nonverbal behavior, personality and gender, social relationships, judgments of morality, and mental illness. Fulfills Social Science Requirement for Arts & Sciences; Satisfies Social Science K-State 8; Psychology elective for psychology majors/minors.

Course options to pair with LEAD 502 or PSYCH 590:
- ANTH 368 – Archaeology: From the Mediterranean to the Alps
- ARCH 265 – Italy and the Architectural Imagination
- ART 628 – History of Italian Art and Architecture
- HM 499 – Food and Wine of Italy

Total Estimated Cost:
Program Fee: $3,400 | Tuition: $1,925 (6 credits) | Estimated additional expenses, including airfare, meals, etc: $2,585

Application Deadline
Priority Deadline: December 1, 2019 | Final Deadline: February 1, 2020
