

6 FREE CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY FOOD RESOURCES

1

Cats' Cupboard: K-State Food Pantry

We encourage all students to utilize Cats' Cupboard: K-State Food Pantry to assist with nutritional needs during times of need.

2

Lafene Health Center

Lafene offers nutrition counseling to provide meal planning/food budgeting assistance. If interested, call 785-532-6544 to schedule a nutrition consult. If you prefer, you can book on the myLAFENE+ patient portal.

3

Mobile Food Distributions

Mobile Food Distributions

HandsOn Kansas State, in conjunction with Harvesters Community Food Network of Topeka, hosts regular mobile food distributions throughout the year. Event details and updates are available on the HandsOn Kansas State blog.

4

Nourish Together

Locate:

- free meal programs
- pantries and mobile distributions
- transportation to food
- farmer's markets and local producers

5

Common Table

Common Table is Manhattan's FREE weekly community meals. Meals are served seven nights a week at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria at the Lincoln Education Center, 901 Poyntz Avenue. Everyone is welcome!

6

Powercat Financial

Need help budgeting for food? Powercat Financial is available to assist you with free financial resources and peer-to-peer counseling. Request a FREE appointment at www.ksu.edu/powercatfinancial.

