

Academic Mentor Application
HandsOn Kansas State

Academic Mentoring is a program activity of HandsOn Kansas State of the Staley School of Leadership Studies at Kansas State University focused on the academic success of youth in the Greater Manhattan community. The Academic Mentoring program selects, trains and places federal work study K-State students in school and community-based classrooms and programs that promote and support family literacy efforts and youth development. Academic Mentors are placed throughout the Greater Manhattan area to include the cities of Ogden, Wamego and St. George.
