

Fulbright Summer Institute for U.S. Students

Purpose	To facilitate cultural exchange with the United Kingdom so that students can explore its culture, heritage, and history.
Award
Tenable	There are nine different sites in the United Kingdom, each with a distinct thematic focus. Applicants must choose one and direct their application to that site.
Number &amp; Amount	Number varies by site (ranges from 3 to 10). Fully funded: airfare both ways, applicable tuition and fees, room and board, and in some instances, a small daily allowance.
Duration	Three to six weeks, depending on the specific site.
Eligibility
Who	U.S. citizen with passport. At least 18 years old before departure date. 3.7 GPA. Preference given to individuals who have not traveled out of country.
When	Undergraduates with two or more years left of study at the time of application (typically freshmen and sophomores).
Selection Criteria	From the website: We are interested in evidence of leadership qualities and initiative, academic ability, character, adaptability and ambassadorial quality, as well as an interest in the UK and its culture.
Campus Deadline	None.
Deadline	Depends on program choice. Typically late February or early March.
Application	Completed online application form, including a prompt-based essay, a personal statement and several short answer questions, two reference letters, and official transcript.
Contact	Beth Powers can assist you regarding the Fulbright Summer Institute. Contact her at 204 Leadership Studies or (785) 532-3422.
Other	Applying for the summer institute does NOT make an individual ineligible for the Fulbright U.S. Student Grant (for graduating seniors, recent alumni and graduate students).  The website contains details regarding each site and its particular focus: www.fulbright.org.uk/fulbright-awards/exchanges-to-the-uk/undergraduates
