SEMINAR MISSION

The mission of the K-State Leadership Seminar is to enhance the leadership skills and capacities of the K-State community and communities throughout Kansas.

The objectives of the seminar are:

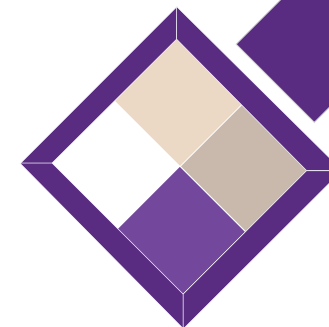

- To orchestrate an annual leadership development experience that provides practical, hands-on information, tools, best practices and “next practices” for effective leadership.
- To cultivate a learning community, connecting K-State faculty and staff with an interest in leadership development.
- To facilitate opportunities for continued learning beyond the annual seminar.

Special Assistance

A conference or noncredit program participant who needs accommodations due to a disability or special dietary requirements should indicate services needed at the time of registration. If you have further questions, please contact Kathryn Harth, program coordinator, at kharth@k-state.edu or 785-532-2495. Early notification is requested to ensure that accommodations can be provided in a timely manner.

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Kansas State University is committed to nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, age, ancestry, disability, genetic information, military status, veteran status, or other non-merit reasons, in admissions, educational programs or activities and employment, including employment of disabled veterans and veterans of the Vietnam Era, as required by applicable laws and regulations. Responsibility for coordination of compliance efforts and receipt of inquiries concerning Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans With Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008, has been delegated to the Director of Institutional Equity, Kansas State University, 103 Edwards Hall, Manhattan, KS 66506-4801, (Phone) 785-532-6220; (TTY) 785-532-4807.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Two keynote speakers will tackle what it means to courageously lead. Dr. Orlando Taylor, national leader in graduate and professional education, provides an interactive experience on what it means to courageously lead in the workplace. Lt. Gen. Robert Brooks Brown will share stories of courageous leadership and personal risk as a leader in the United States Army.

Sessions throughout the day will focus on courageous leadership — from best practices for your team to personal experiences to encourage you in your own situations.

NOTE

If you are registering a team of participants at one time, we recommend:

- Mailing or faxing a completed form for each person or
- Calling the registration office with information for each person or
- When completing the online form, in the section titled "Team Members," enter each additional person (first and last name). This does NOT register the team members; it simply indicated team groupings to the registration officer. Each individual will still need to be registered separately.
