GENDER, SEXUALITY, & POP CULTURE

College, society, and our place in both can seem complicated; and so can our views on feminism, gender, and sexuality, which are heavily influenced by pop culture. What can we learn about ourselves and others with the ever-shifting roles of sex, gender, and sexuality in our society and culture? As the news reports gender equality becoming more of a reality, especially for women; as LGBTQIAP (lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans*, queer, intersex, asexual/ally, polyamorous/pansexual) people become more visible on TV; and as meninism draws a considerable following on social media, some people might believe that feminism no longer matters. In this CAT community, we shall explore how feminism has actually benefitted all of our lives and how pop culture can be a critical medium to enact gender, sexual, and racial justice both locally and globally.

RESIDENCE HALL
Kramer Community (Wefald, Goodnow, Marlatt)

COURSES
GWSS 105 Intro to Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies
COMM 106 Public Speaking
DAS 195 Gender, Sexuality, and Pop Culture

ENROLL NOW!
Contact K-State First at 785-532-1501 or email us at kstatefirst@k-state.edu to enroll or if you have any questions!